Basic TV Reporting Ivor Yorke, 1997-10-24. Basic TV Reporting is a practical, easy-to-read guide to the skills needed to become a successful television reporter, arguably the most demanding and glamorous job in journalism. The book describes the role in detail how reporters fit into the editorial team and where their duties begin and end. Basic TV Reporting is a practical, easy-to-read guide to the skills needed to become a successful television reporter, arguably the most demanding and glamorous job in journalism. The book describes the role in detail how reporters fit into the editorial team and where their duties begin and end. The late Ivor Yorke has enjoyed a wealth of experience to pass on to aspiring broadcast journalists, having spent more than 20 years as a writer, reporter, producer, and editor before becoming Head of Journalist Training BBC News and Current Affairs. He was also a freelance training consultant. He is the author of Television News, now in its third edition, and co-author with the late Bernard Hesketh of An Introduction to ENG, also published by Focal Press. Reviews: This is a short, well-constructed book which is of as much value to the interviewed as to the interviewer. It is practical and down to earth, keeps off the gin, and sticks to the tonic, and is delightfully easy to read. British Journal of Educational Technology. Beginning Radio and TV Newswriting K. Tim Wulfemeyer, 2009-05-04. The fifth edition of this bestselling text instructs students on the basic styles, principles, and techniques of radio and TV newswriting. It makes an ideal supplement to basic newswriting texts or radio and TV industry texts. Offers clear instruction, examples, and exercises to guide beginning students in correct radio and TV news style. Fully updated and with even more examples, exercises, and tests. The author has extensive radio and TV news experience both on the air and behind the scenes as a producer, news writer, videographer, newscaster, sportscaster, host, and reporter.

Writing for Broadcast News Charles Raiteri, 2006. Writing for Broadcast News makes the storytelling elements that comprise a broadcast news story, whether for radio or TV, immediately accessible and understandable to beginning broadcast writers and journalism students. Its step-by-step approach defines the parts necessary to structuring a story with a clear beginning, middle, and end by establishing a definite framework into which the anchor, lead, the reporter narrative, and the actualities or sound bites fit to form a seamless, compelling whole. Starting with the idea that people are most interested in people, no matter what the issue, this instructive book emphasizes the human element and shows how to put a face on the story at the earliest possible moment. It uses student report case histories to allow beginners to more easily learn the journalistic process and how to maintain its integrity, and also features quizzes, exercises based on actual news stories, and critical evaluation checklists.
