Fighter Pilots of the RAF 1939-1945 Chaz Bowyer,2000-09-13 The author has selected some twenty RAF fighter pilots of the Second World War not only to give overdue recognition to their prowess and courage but also to exemplify the wide diversity of the individual characters of those men whose war was fought from the cockpit of an RAF fighter A few were familiar names but most received little or no public acclaim being part of the silent majority which provided the real spine of the RAF s fighter effort throughout the conflict

Confessions of a Flying Instructor Tug Wilson,2023-04-16 After surviving three years flying the RAF s greatest and scariest fighter the mighty Phantom Tug Wilson tried his hand at teaching some of the flying skills he probably should have known when he was on the Cold War front line Despite being slightly more mature and having the responsibility of teaching and looking after trainee pilots and navigators in the cockpit of a Hawk fast jet trainer Wilson manages to almost kill himself again and at least one of his students This book build on the insecurities amazement and pure unadulterated joy that the author felt while flying aircraft in his beloved RAF It is an open and honest account of his professional and personal life much in the style of his first book Confessions of a Phantom Pilot which has been described as a Cracking good read by Tug his family and all his mates from the Phantom that were happy to be mentioned in it Ever wondered what a fast jet pilot goes through while learning the intricacies of air defence and low level flying Or even how to cheat in air combat Confessions of a Flying Instructor is a personal examination of an often overlooked aspect of the RAF
