Radar Derived Spatial Statistics of Summer Rain. Volume 2: Data Reduction and Analysis, 1975 Wellington's Operations in the Peninsula 1808-1814 Vol 2 Captain Lewis Butler, 2013-02-19 Written almost a century after the events they describe Lewis Butler's two volumes on Wellington's Peninsula War campaigns have rightly been judged a classic of military history The story of how the Iron Duke turned disaster into triumph and defeat into a final victory has surely never been told with more authority Volume Two begins with Wellington besieging and storming Badajoz and Ciudad Rodrigo These successes are followed by the difficult but decisive campaign culminating in Wellington's victory over Marshal Marmont at Salamanca and his entry into Madrid After a difficult winter Wellington once again resumes the offensive defeats Marshal Soult at Vitoria and chases him over the Pyrenees and out of Spain But Soult's stubborn resistance continues at the battles of Nivelle the Nive and Orthez as the fighting moves towards Toulouse where Wellington fights his final victorious battle of the war as news of Napoleon's abdication arrives Both volumes are liberally illustrated with maps and sketches of the battles and other operations What Napoleon called his Spanish ulcer has never been more minutely described and dissected with the author paying a military man's due attention to the sinews of war as well as to the action The Argumentative Turn in Policy Analysis and Planning Frank Fischer, John Forester, 2013-07-12 Public policy is made of language Whether in written or oral form argument is central to all parts of the policy process As simple as this insight appears its implications for policy analysis and planning are profound Drawing from recent work on language and argumentation and referring to such theorists as Wittgenstein Habermas Toulmin and Foucault these essays explore the interplay of language action and power in both the practice and the theory of policy making The contributors scholars of international renown who range across the theoretical spectrum emphasize the political nature of the policy planner's work and stress the role of persuasive arguments in practical decision making Recognizing the rhetorical communicative character of policy and planning deliberations they show that policy arguments are necessarily selective both shaping and being shaped by relations of power These essays reveal the practices of policy analysts and planners in powerful new ways as matters of practical argumentation in complex highly political environments They also make an important contribution to contemporary debates over postempiricism in the social and policy sciences Contributors John S Dryzek William N Dunn Frank Fischer John Forester Maarten Hajer Patsy Healey Robert Hoppe Bruce Jennings Thomas J Kaplan Duncan MacRae Jr Martin Rein Donald Schon J A Throgmorton EPA Publications Bibliography United States.
