Safekeeping Some True Stories From A Life:

Safekeeping Abigail Thomas, 2001-04-17 A beautifully crafted and inviting account of one woman's life Safekeeping offers a sublimely different kind of autobiography Setting aside a straightforward narrative in favor of brief passages of vivid prose Abigail Thomas revisits the pivotal moments and the tiny incidents that have shaped her life pregnancy at 18 single motherhood of three by the age of 26 the joys and frustrations of three marriages and the death of her second husband who was her best friend The stories made of these incidents are startling in their clarity and reassuring in their wisdom This is a book in which silence speaks as eloquently as what is revealed Openhearted and effortlessly funny these brilliantly selected glimpses of the arc of a life are in an age of excessive confession and recrimination a welcome tonic The New York Times Book Reviews 2000 New York Times Staff, 2001 This anthology examines Love's Labours Lost from a variety of perspectives and through a wide range of materials Selections discuss the play in terms of historical context dating and sources character analysis comic elements and verbal conceits evidence of authorship performance analysis and feminist interpretations Alongside theater reviews production photographs and critical commentary the volume also includes essays written by practicing theater artists who have worked on the play An index by name literary work and concept rounds out this valuable resource Find Your Story, Write Your Memoir Lynn C. Miller, Lisa Lenard-Cook, 2013-05-31 Every person has a story to tell but few beginners know how to uncover their story's narrative potential And despite a growing interest among students and creative writers few guides to the genre of memoirs and creative nonfiction highlight compelling storytelling strategies Addressing this gap the authors provide a guide to memoir writing that shows how an aspiring writer can use storytelling tools and tactics borrowed from fiction to weave personal experiences into the shape of a story Writing Hard Stories Melanie Brooks, 2017-02-07 Some of the country's most admired authors including Andre Dubus III Mark Doty Marianne Leone Michael Patrick MacDonald Richard Blanco Abigail Thomas Kate Bornstein Jerald Walker and Kyoko Mori describe their treks through dark memories and breakthrough moments and attest to the healing power of putting words to experience What does it take to write an honest memoir And what happens to us when we embark on that journey Melanie Brooks sought guidance from the memoirists who most moved her to answer these questions Called an essential book for creative writers by Poets about violence and shunning and about the process of writing It will serve as a tool for teachers of writing and give readers an intimate look into the lives of the authors they love Authors profiled in Writing Hard Stories Andre Dubus III Sue William Silverman Michael Patrick MacDonald Joan Wickersham Kyoko Mori Richard Hoffman Suzanne Strempek Shea Abigail Thomas Monica Wood Mark Doty Edwidge Danticat Marianne Leone Jerald Walker Kate Bornstein Jessica Handler Richard Blanco Alysia Abbott and Kim Stafford Insights from Writing Hard Stories Why we endeavor collectively to write a book or paint a canvas or write a symphony is to understand who we are as human beings and it's that shared knowledge that somehow helps us to survive Richard Blanco Here's what you need to understand your brothers or family or friends are going to have their own stories to tell You don't have to tell the family story You have to tell your story of being in that family Andre Dubus III We all need a way to express or make something out of experiences that otherwise have no meaning If what you want is clarity and meaning you have to break the secrets over your knee and make something of those ingredients Abigail Thomas What we remember and how we remember it really tells us how we became who we became Michael Patrick MacDonald The reason I write memoir is to be able to see the experience itself I hardly know what I think until I write Writing is a way to organize your life give it a frame give it a structure so that you can really see what it was that happened Sue William Silverman After a while in the process you have some distance and you start thinking of it as a story not as your story It was a personal grief but no longer personal It's something that has not just happened to me and my family but something that's happened in the world Edwidge Danticat Tibetan Buddhists believe that eloquence is the telling of a truth in such a way that it eases suffering The more suffering that is eased by your telling of the truth the more eloquent you are That's all you can really hope for being eloquent in that fashion All you have to do is respond to your story honestly and that's the ideal Kate Bornstein You can never entirely redeem the experience You can't make it not hurt anymore But you can make it beautiful enough so that there's something to balance it in the other scale And if you understand that word beautiful as not necessarily pretty then you're getting close to recognizing the integrative power of restoring the balance which is restoring the truth Richard Hoffman Always There, Always Gone Marty
