Mousolfé, 1986 Land of Women Lisa M. Bitel, 1998 This book dispenses the shadows in an obscure but important landscape Lisa Bitel addresses both the history of women in early Ireland and the history of myth legend and superstition which surrounded them It is a powerful and exact book and an invaluable addition to our expanding sense of Ireland through the eyes of Irish women Eavan Boland author of In a Time of Violence Poems It is refreshing to read in a book by a woman on medieval women that not all clerics hated women and that not all men were oversexed villains consciously bent on exploiting women Bitel challenges not only the medieval Irish male construct of female behavior but she is also courageous enough to question constructs of medieval women invented by modern Irish medieval historians Times Higher Education Supplement

De Sherbinin, 1997

Chekhov and Russian Religious Culture is an innovative study of the Virgin Mary and the saintly harlots Mary of Egypt and Mary Magdalene as a cultural paradigm encoded in Chekhov's prose De Sherbinin establishes the authority of the Marian paradigm in nineteenth century Russian culture with a comprehensive overview of salient religious and literary texts then offers critical readings of more than fifteen Chekhov stories including key works such as Peasants Peasant Women and My Life De Sherbinin argues that Chekhov inverts and displaces the Christian meanings of Marian texts in order to reveal a vasy array of problematized relationships to the canonized figures This illuminating semiotic reading of Chekhov explores questions of female identity as it probes the mindset of Russian Orthodox popular culture The Advance , 1907
