Saint John The Making Of A Colonial Urban Community:

Saint John Thomas William Acheson,1985 Saint John T. W. Acheson,1993 Saint John New Brunswick was a small stagnant mercantile town in 1800 Its character was set by its British garrison a few prominent Loyalist officials and a small merchant elite But that character changed quickly and dramatically in the first half of the nineteenth century T W Acheson traces the events that lead to the change and analyses their impact on the community Saint John Thomas W. Acheson,1993-12-15 Saint John New Brunswick was a small stagnant mercantile town in 1800 Its character was set by its British garrison a few prominent Loyalist officials and a small merchant elite But that character changed quickly and dramatically in the first half of the nineteenth century T W Acheson traces the events that lead to the change and analyses their impact on the community An Urban Biography of Saint John William G. Godfrey,1986 The Creative City of Saint John Christl Verduyn,2018-09-11 This book presents a wide ranging portrayal of the creative work done in Saint John in the hundred years following Confederation Beautiful watercolour and oil paintings early fossil discoveries successful bestselling authors and other examples of the creative city are brought together in this volume Among the many surprising and interesting accounts the contribution to Maritime natural history made by a butterfly found in the city the role of the city's Great Fire in generating a host of visual artists documenting the urban landscape and the little known Hollywood connection that made the city a hotbed of film production in the early 1900s Urban and community development in Atlantic Canada, 1867-1991 ,1993-01-01 This book offers the first comprehensive overview of community development for the Atlantic Provinces The authors take a collaborative approach to their research question and contribute more than just a survey on urban development They also create a framework for understanding the relationship between the development of towns and cities in Atlantic Canada and in other parts of the country Published in English Griffintown Matthew Barlow,2017-06-28 This vibrant biography of Griffintown an inner city Montreal neighbourhood brings to life the history of Irish identity in the legendary enclave As Irish immigration dwindled by the late nineteenth century Irish culture in the city became diasporic reflecting an imagined homeland Focusing on the power of memory to shape community Matthew Barlow finds that despite sociopolitical pressures and a declining population the spirit of this ethnic quarter was nurtured by the men and women who grew up there Today as Griffintown attracts renewed interest from developers this textured analysis reveals how public memory defines our urban centres Maritime Capital Eric W. Sager,Gerald E. Panting,1996 In this final volume of the Atlantic Canada Shipping Project Sager and Panting argue that the decline of the shipping industry was not as has commonly been assumed the inevitable result of the conversion from wood and sail to iron and steam They show that the merchant class in failing to maintain a merchant marine built and owned in their region contributed in no small way to the Maritimes present state of underdevelopment Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Rural Protest on Prince Edward Island Rusty Bittermann,2006-01-01 In Rural Protest on Prince Edward Island Rusty Bittermann examines this conflict and the dynamic of rural protest on the Island from its establishment as a British colony in the 1760s to the early 1840s The focus of Bittermann s study is the remarkable mass movement known as the Escheat movement which emerged in the 1830s in the context of growing popular challenges elsewhere in the Atlantic World The Escheat movement aimed at resolving the land question in favour of tenants by having the state resume escheat the large grants of land that created landlordism on the Island Although it ultimately gained control of the assembly in the late 1830s the Escheat movement did not produce the land policies that tenants and their allies advocated Catholics at the Gathering Place Mark George McGowan,Brian P. Clarke,1993-01-01 These 17 original innovative studies reinterpret the social and institutional development of one of Canadas largest dioceses The Spirit of Industry and Improvement Daniel Samson,2008-04-17 The notion of improvement permeated social and political discourse in colonial Canadian society From agriculture to building roads and mills to defining correct habits and behaviour Nova Scotia s improvers embraced the ideals of innovation and progress and promoted modern programs of government Daniel Samson moves Nova Scotia and rural Canada from the colonial margins to the heart of a modernizing society showing how the countryside functioned as a centre of change and innovation He connects a fascinating spectrum of sites actors and strategies and links settlement farm building rural market formation and early industrialization to the heterogeneous strategies of families and state actors the rural poor and rural elites The Spirit of Industry and Improvement presents the first ever overview of rural colonial Nova Scotia and provides compelling insights into the formation of modern liberal practices of government and self government in British North America Magistrates, Police and People Donald Fyson,Osgoode Society for Canadian Legal History,2006-01-01 Based on extensive research in judicial and official sources Donald Fyson offers the first comprehensive study of the everyday workings of criminal justice in Quebec and Lower Canada Focusing on the justices of the peace and their police Fyson examines both the criminal justice system itself and the system in operation as experienced by those who participated in it Fyson contends that although the system was fundamentally biased its flexibility provided a source of power for ordinary citizens At the same time the system offered the colonial state and its elites a powerful though often faulty means of imposing their will on Quebec society This study will challenge many received historical interpretations providing new insight into criminal justice in early Quebec Borderland Smuggling Joshua M. Smith,2019-10-14 Passamaquoddy Bay lies between Maine and New Brunswick at the mouth of the St Croix River Most of it including Campobello Island is within Canada but the Maine town of Lubec lies at the bay s entrance Rich in beaver pelts fish and timber the area was a famous smuggling center after the American Revolution Joshua Smith examines the reasons for smuggling in this area and how three conflicts in early republic history the 1809 Flour War the War of 1812 and the 1820 Plaster War reveal smuggling s relationship to crime borderlands and the transition from mercantilism to capitalism Smith astutely interprets smuggling as created and provoked by government efforts to maintain and regulate borders In 1793 British and American negotiators framed a vague new boundary meant to demarcate the lingering British empire in North America Canada from the new American Republic Officials insisted that an abstract line now divided local peoples on either side of Passamaquoddy Bay Merely by persisting in trade across the newly demarcated national boundary people violated the new laws As smugglers they defied both the British and American efforts to restrict and regulate commerce Consequently local resistance and national authorities engaged in a continuous battle for four decades Smith treats the Passamaquoddy Bay smuggling as more than a local episode of antiquarian interest Indeed he crafts a local case study to illuminate a widespread phenomenon in early modern Europe and the Americas A volume in the series New Perspectives on Maritime History and Nautical Archaeology edited by James C Bradford and Gene Allen Smith
