Serving Time:

Serving Time Great Britain: National Audit Office, 2006-03-09 Significant improvements have been made in HM Prison Service's catering arrangements resulting in financial savings and improved quality of service Since 2003-04 savings of some 2.5 million have been made each year from expenditure on food and some 1.7 million a year on catering staff mainly through civilianisation of catering staff posts Other savings have arisen from more efficient procurement and reduced stockholdings of food In addition most prisoners are offered full and varied programmes of physical education activities Also Serving Time Rosemary Ricciardelli, 2019-11-04 Also Serving Time informs readers about the realities of provincial and territorial prison work in Canada Exploring the nuances of the job Rosemary Ricciardelli shows how officer orientations and attitudes toward prisoners are interconnected and foundational in shaping their own experiences as well as those of managerial and administrative staff and prisoners themselves Drawing on interviews with one hundred correctional officers with experience in a range of provincial and territorial prisons Ricciardelli provides theoretical and applied explorations of officer orientations interpretations and risk propensity to show how perceptions attitudes and beliefs both at the individual and structural levels shape prison practices Detailing officers' experiences working with male and female adult prison populations Also Serving Time unpacks how gender informs the actions and self presentation of correctional officers Ricciardelli confirms that tasks of daily living underpinned by pervasive risk potential shape prison work Through the officer accounts presented the book provides an opportunity for readers to explore how punishment and rehabilitation gender and the hierarchical structure of prison management together shape officers' daily realities Serving Time Too Rosalind Boone Williams, 2019-05-29 Serving Time Too: A Memoir of My Son's Prison Years is the universally accessible story of a mother and son what she knew about him what she will never understand how she helped him and when she needed to let him go But Rosalind Williams' memoir is unique because her unconditional love for Marell persisted after his conviction for murder During his sixteen years in prison and for two and a half years after his release every aspect of Rosalind's life was affected by her fidelity to him and by the failures of a penal system tinged with racial and class inequities Rosalind tells a personal story with enormous significance to society She is an unflinchingly fair sometimes self-critical narrator who reflects upon the enticements of violence and crime especially for African American young men despite the values they are taught at home Her experiences demonstrate the damage that crime and punishment inflict upon those good people who stand by loved ones during and after incarceration This memoir will comfort anyone related to the 2.3 million people behind bars in the United States Others will hear a call to reform and more importantly they will feel compassion for the offender's family and the offender No other book in print takes Rosalind's perspective on the problems of crime and incarceration Serving Productive Time Tom Lagana, Laura Lagana, 2009-07 Are you or have you ever been incarcerated Do you have a loved one in jail or prison Do you work or volunteer at a correctional facility Have you ever been the victim of a crime Do you understand that we all share the responsibility of helping others no matter who they are where they live or what they have done If so you understand that incarceration affects everyone and that only through positive change can people begin to heal and grow In Serving Productive Time you ll read about extraordinary people who are taking tangible steps to make positive changes in their own lives and who are reaching out to help others do the same Some stories will help you gain a new perspective on those who are incarcerated Some will help you understand the need to prepare inmates for release and to support them afterward Others will help you appreciate your freedom and remind you that we all make mistakes And still others will reaffirm the fact that although many of us might be imprisoned in some way either by a limiting belief illness or other situation we all need a helping hand at some point in our lives to lift us up and show us the path to a new life Serving Productive Time will leave you with a renewed appreciation of the need for all of us to use our time wisely to make ongoing positive changes in our lives and to bring others along with us in the process whether we live or work inside or outside the razor wire      Seeking Home B.L.
