

SETTING CONTEXT/CITING

Remember: To set context, you need to situate the reader within the part of the book that your evidence appears; who is speaking, if at all? What's going on? Write in the literary present; you may have already read the text, but when you return to that page, the action is then and there occurring.

Ex: Early in the novel, Lennie says that he likes ketchup with his beans as he whines to George that...
