Setting The Table Women In Theological Conversation:

Setting the Table Rita Nakashima Brock, Claudia V. Camp, Serene Jones, 1995 Once upon a time woman theologian was something of a contradiction in terms No more This collection of essays offers a dynamic look at the emerging consciousness of feminist theology how it has grown and how it is creating a new vision for the church Chalice Introduction to Disciples Theology Peter Heltzel, 2008 Transforming Exclusion Hannah Bacon, Wayne Morris, 2011-06-23 Transforming Exclusion is concerned with the interface between the study of religion theology and issues surrounding exclusion Religious beliefs can be important in shaping attitudes that can lead to the exploitation or marginalization of both humans and non humans At the same time religious beliefs and practices have much to offer in transforming the world creating a more equitable place for all who occupy it At other times the voices of members of religious communities are suppressed and marginalized by other more dominant religious or secular individuals or communities This book addresses all of these aspects of social exclusion and aims to demonstrate that the study of theology and religion in addressing religious communities and society more widely have important contributions to make in creating a more just world The issue of exclusion is engaged with from a range of different perspectives by scholars involved in fieldwork with religious communities systematic contextual and practical theologians and practitioners involved in the preparation of individuals and groups for a range of ministries and professions

Feminist Reconstructions of Christian Doctrine Kathryn Greene-McCreight, 2000-03-09 What is the relationship between feminist theology and classical Christian theology Is feminist theology Christian and if so in what respect and to what extent This study seeks to analyze and evaluate the relation of feminist reconstructions to traditional Christian teaching Greene McCreight uses the extent to which the biblical depiction of God is allowed to guide theological hermeneutics as a test of orthodoxy She looks at the writings of a wide range of contemporary feminist theologians discusses their doctrinal patterns and demonstrates how the Bible is used in undergirding their theological reconstructions Setting the Agenda Roberta Hamilton, 2002-01-01 The biography of Jean Royce Registrar of Queen s University for thirty five years provides a close look at the development and politics of a major Canadian university People of Faith, People of Jeong (Qing) Nam Soon Song, Ben C. H. Kuo, Dong-Ha Kim, In Kee Kim, 2020-07-02 This book People of Faith People of Jeong Qing seeks to reveal and understand the current state and the future prospective of Asian Canadian immigrant churches ACIC including Chinese Taiwanese and Korean churches Starting with a brief chronicle of ACIC history this book shares the journeys and the stories of current members of lay and clergy from various ACIC The chapters attempt to explain the influence and the impact that jeong and faith have on these churches to envisage the future of ACIC and to draw relevant implications for the betterment of these churches going into the future This book reflects the real voices and sentiments of the first and the second generation members of these ethnic Asian immigrant churches in the Greater Toronto Area GTA It is original authentic comprehensive and inclusive in its perspectives the first book of its kind on Asian immigrant churches in Canada The book will serve as an inspiration and a practical guide for immigrant churches in cross cultural and cross generational transitions It offers laypeople church leaders and clergies a critical reference as they navigate through the future of churches in North America and beyond The Stone-Campbell Movement D. Newell Williams,Douglas Allen Foster,Paul M. Blowers,2013-03-30 The Stone Campbell Movement A Global History tells the story of Christians from around the globe and across time who have sought to witness faithfully to the gospel of reconciliation Transcending theological differences by drawing from all the major streams of the movement this foundational book documents the movement s humble beginnings on the American frontier and growth into international churches of the twenty first century Disciples and Theology Stephen Sprinkle,1999 Although the Christian Church Disciples of Christ has consciously avoided formal creeds Disciples have through their history formulated their thought in distinctive theological ways Re-imagining Life Together in America Catherine T. Nerney,Hal Taussig,2002 Well written and highly accessible this book interweaves a thorough review of developments in Christian community from the first century to the present with powerful new discoveries in scriptural theological and historical research that has uncovered deep communal strands in the foundational literature and notions of Christianity The result is a profound call for the renewal of Christian community and churches as crucial models and inspirations for the new search for wholeness in America Early Daoist Dietary Practices Shawn Arthur,2013-06-27 Much as the modern Western world is concerned with diets health and anti aging remedies many early medieval Chinese Daoists also actively sought to improve their health and increase their longevity through specialized ascetic dietary practices Focusing on a fifth century manual of herbal based immortality oriented recipes the Lingbao Wufuxu The Preface to the Five Lingbao Talismans of Numinous Treasure Shawn Arthur investigates the diets their ingredients and their expected range of natural and supernatural benefits Analyzing the ways that early Daoists systematically synthesized religion Chinese medicine and cosmological correlative logic this study offers new understandings of important Daoist ideas regarding the body s composition and mutability health and disease grain avoidance bigu diets the parasitic Three Worms interacting with the spirit realm and immortality This work also employs a range of cross disciplinary scientific and medical research to analyze the healing properties of Daoist self cultivation diets and to consider some natural explanations for better understanding Daoist asceticism and its underlying world view Feminist and Womanist Essays in Reformed Dogmatics Amy Plantinga Pauw,Serene Jones,2006-04-17 This book is a collection of essays by thirteen feminist and womanist authors who locate themselves within the Reformed tradition Topics explored include the Trinity creation election atonement the church fear resistance and vocation This book will be of great interest to scholars and students interested in feminist theology The Columbia Series in Reformed Theology represents a joint commitment by Columbia Theological Seminary and Westminster John Knox Press to provide theological resources from the Reformed tradition for the church today This series examines theological and ethical issues that confront church and society in our own particular time and place Dust that Breathes

William Schweiker, 2010-12-09 In this insightful and look at the practical challenges and possibilities for Christian life in the global age Schweiker investigates Christianity's current relevance and discusses how the life of faith can be oriented. Explores the big religious themes of modern life including religious identity in global times the role of conscience integrity and versions of religious humanism. Written by an author who is internationally recognized as one of the world's leading theologians. Draws on the work of some prominent contemporary philosophers and theologians to clarify the nature of faith. Unique in its appreciation of the ambiguity of religion in its representations of the highest human achievements as well as the very worst of human actions using a balanced and engaged approach to discuss contentious theological and intellectual issues. Ordination: Celebrating the Gift of Min, Theology and the Arts Ruth Illman, W. Alan Smith, 2013-06-07 This book brings the emerging fields of practical theology and theology of the arts into a dialogue beyond the bias of modern systematic and constructive theology. The authors draw upon postmodern post secular feminist liberation and dialogical dialectical philosophy and theology and their critiques of the narrow modern emphases on reason and the scientific method as the model for all knowledge. Such a practical theology of the arts focuses the work of theology on the actual practices that engage the arts in their various forms as the means of interpreting and understanding the nature of the communities and their members as well as the mechanisms through which these communities engage in transformative work to make persons and neighborhoods whole. This book presents its theological claims through the careful analysis of several stories of communities around the world that have engaged in transformational practices through a specific art form investigating communities from Europe the Middle East South America and the U S. The case studies explored include Jewish Christian Muslim Druze indigenous and sometimes agnostic subjects involved in visual art music dance theatre documentary film and literature. Theology and the Arts demonstrates that the challenges of a postmodern and post secular context require a fundamental rethinking of theology that focuses on discrete practices of faithful communities rather than one dimensional theories about religion. The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Theology Mary McClintock Fulkerson, Sheila Briggs, 2012 This volume highlights the relevance of globalization and the insights of gender studies and religious studies for feminist theology. It focuses on the changing global contexts for the field and its movement towards new models of theology distinct from the forms of traditional Christian systematic theology and of secular feminism. Creating Women's Theology Monica A. Coleman, Nancy R. Howell, Helene Tallon Russell, 2011-09-22 Creating Women's Theology engages women's questions. Can women from different religious traditions engage one theological approach? Can one philosophical approach support feminist religious thought? What kind of belief follows women's criticism of traditional Christianity? Creating Women's Theology offers a portrait of how some women have found room for faith and feminism. For the last twenty five years women religion scholars have synthesized process philosophy with their feminist sensibilities and faith commitments to highlight the value of experience the importance of freedom and the interdependence of humanity God and all creation. Cutting across cultural and religious traditions process relational feminist thought represents a theology that women have created This volume offers an introduction to process and feminist theologies before presenting selections from canonical works in the field with study questions This volume includes voices from Christianity Judaism goddess religion the Black church and indigenous religions Creating Women's Theology invites new generations of undergraduate seminary and university graduate students to the methods and insights of process relational feminist theology

Fragments for Fractured Times Nicola Slee, 2020-09-30 Nicola Slee one of the world's leading feminist practical theologians brings together 15 years of papers articles talks and sermons many of them previously unpublished Drawing on a wide and diverse range of her writing Slee demonstrates the richness and variety of feminist practical theological writing

The Religious Imagination of American Women Mary Farrell Bednarowski, 1999-10-22 Explores five ideas that animate the theological imagination of women in religious communities throughout America ambivalence toward tradition the immanence or indwelling of the divine the sacredness of the ordinary and the ordinariness of the sacred the vision of the universe as a web of relationships and healing as a central function of religion back cover

Reflections on My Call to Preach Fred B. Craddock, 2009 Travel with revered preacher and author Fred Craddock through his early years as he considers what made him take to the pulpit For some reason I felt I had to say Yes or No to the ministry so I could feel free again My siblings and friends talked almost casually about options and preferences as to careers but with no evident sense of urgency Not so with me I did not then nor do I now know whether the burden of choice was a trait of personality a kind of super conscientiousness whether the calling to ministry itself carried a weight a burden peculiar to the task itself Rightly or wrongly when I thought of possibly becoming a journalist that would be a choice 100 percent mine When I considered becoming a minister that was not totally my decision I was responding to God's will for me Of course I had been told that journalists lawyers teachers merchants farmers all could understand their lives as a vocation a calling but what I am telling you is that I perceived I felt I experienced the idea of being a preacher as different and that difference was sobering even burdensome That's why advice about not being in a hurry taking my time was not helpful even if wise If it was my decision why could I not make it now if it was God's decision why did not God tell me or at least tell my father or my mother I prayed for the ache to leave me Excerpt from Reflections on My Call to Preach

The Pentecostal Gender Paradox Joseph Lee Dutko, 2023-11-16 The distinct subjects of eschatology and gender equality have seen an explosion of interest in recent decades particularly within Pentecostal scholarship Pentecostalism is regarded ideally as both an eschatological and egalitarian movement However many Pentecostals have lamented the inconsistency between the early egalitarian impulse of the movement and its current restrictive practices This situation has been described as the so called Pentecostal gender paradox referring to the conflicting freedoms and limitations experienced by Pentecostal women Pentecostals have also recognized the waning eschatological fervor within the movement and its shifting eschatological convictions leading to calls to rediscover the eschatological heart of the movement Despite the renewed interest in both eschatology and women's equality little research has been done to put these two areas into conversation with each other eschatological convictions are often absent in the debate on gender roles in the church For Pentecostals eschatology has often been about urgency in saving souls rather than attending to social issues but could Pentecostal eschatology be the key to re-discovering greater equality for women in the church Is the waning of both eschatology and women's equality within Pentecostalism potentially interrelated For over one hundred years the role of women in Pentecostalism has been debated without a firm consensus By examining gender solely through an eschatological lens in history Scripture and praxis this work provides a valuable and creative contribution to one of the most important theological and global issues of our time women's in equality This book is also one of the first comprehensive studies to approach a single social issue solely through an eschatological lens and to provide attention to developing a thorough and methodologically connected eschatological praxis By uncovering the unified eschatological egalitarian narrative thread within both the Pentecostal and biblical story this work suggests that the present end of women's inequality begins with fidelity to the future eschaton of gender equality
