Seven Centuries Of Irish Learning 1000 17:

Ireland and Medicine in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries James Kelly,2016-05-06 The story of early modern medicine with its extremes of scientific brilliance and barbaric practice has long held a fascination for scholars The great discoveries of Harvey and Jenner sit incongruously with the persistence of Galenic theory superstition and blood letting Yet despite continued research into the period as a whole most work has focussed on the metropolitan centres of England Scotland and France ignoring the huge range of national and regional practice This collection aims to go some way to rectifying this situation providing an exploration of the changes and developments in medicine as practised in Ireland and by Irish physicians studying and working abroad during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Bringing together research undertaken into the neglected area of Irish medical and social history across a variety of disciplines including history of medicine Colonial Latin American history Irish and French history it builds upon ground breaking work recently published by several of the contributors thereby augmenting our understanding of the role of medicine within early modern Irish society and its broader scientific and intellectual networks By addressing fundamental issues that reach beyond the medical institutions the collection expands our understanding of Irish medicine and throws new light on medical practices and the broader cultural and social issues of early modern Ireland Europe and Latin America Taking a variety of approaches and sources ranging from the use of eplistolary exchange to the study of medical receipt books legislative practice to belief in miracles local professionalization to international networks each essay offers a fascinating insight into a still largely neglected area Furthermore the collection argues for the importance of widening current research to consider the importance and impact of early Irish medical traditions networks and practices and their interaction with related issues such as politics gender economic demand and religious belief Late Medieval Irish Law Manuscripts: A Reappraisal of Methodology and Content Rowena Finnane,2023-09-25 Late Medieval Irish Law Manuscripts A Reappraisal of Methodology and Context challenges the long held view that Irish law manuscripts produced in the secular law schools of the late medieval period are only the work of antiquarians This book examines the texts in their political social and cultural contexts particularly in relation to the Irish revival of the fourteenth century onwards Finnane s examination of the manuscripts includes legal interpretation and the role of glossing and commenting on older canonical texts in establishing the authority of those texts in the present the use of the manuscripts in legal education the use of the past in providing legitimacy and authority particularly in a legal context Finnane argues that the manuscripts are the work of jurists authorising a revived legal system connected to a re emergent Irish political elite after more than a century of Anglo Norman invasion and rule The Oxford Illustrated History of Ireland R. F. Foster,2000-11-09 A history of Ireland from prehistoric times to the present Includes 200 illustrations Literacy and Orality in Eighteenth-Century Irish Song Julie Henigan,2015-10-06 Focusing on several distinct genres of eighteenth century Irish song Henigan demonstrates in each case that the interaction between the elite and vernacular the written and oral is pervasive and characteristic of the Irish song tradition to the present day   Early Modern Ireland, 1534-1691 Theodore William Moody,Francis Xavier Martin,Francis John Byrne,1991 The third volume of A New History of Ireland opens with a character study of early modern Ireland and a panoramic survey of Ireland in 1534 followed by twelve chapters of narrative history There are further chapters on the economy the coinage languages and literature and the Irish abroad A New History of Ireland is the largest scholarly project in modern Irish history In 9 volumes it provides a comprehensive new synthesis of modern scholarship on every aspect of Irish history and prehistory from the earliest geological and archaeological evidence through the Middle Ages down to t   A Companion to Irish Literature Julia M. Wright,2011-07-08 Featuring new essays by international literary scholars the two volume Companion to Irish Literature encompasses the full breadth of Ireland s literary tradition from the Middle Ages to the present day Covers an unprecedented historical range of Irish literature Arranged in two volumes covering Irish literature from the medieval period to 1900 and its development through the twentieth century to the present day Presents a re visioning of twentieth century Irish literature and a collection of the most up to date scholarship in the field as a whole Includes a substantial number of women writers from the eighteenth century to the present day Includes essays on leading contemporary authors including Brian Friel Seamus Heaney Eavan Boland Roddy Doyle and Emma Donoghue Introduces readers to the wide range of current approaches to studying Irish literature   An Eoraip: Gaelic Ireland in Medieval and Early Modern Europe ,2025-08-14 Medieval and early modern Irish scholars thought of themselves as Europeans As an expression of territorial association this belief reflects both their familiarity with the geographical traditions of Antiquity and the integration of their society into economic cultural and political networks that spanned the continent But it was also an articulation of a perceived cultural affinity often denied in modern scholarship The chapters in this volume examine the many and various ways that Gaelic Ireland was integrated into the broader European world focusing on literature and learning real world politics economics and travel and questions of identity Contributors are Rachel Brody Michael Clarke Simon Egan Deborah Hayden Brendan Kane Victoria L McAlister Ken Donnchu Patricia Palmer Brian Stone and Patrick Wadden   A New History of Ireland, Volume III T. W. Moody,F. X. Martin,F. J. Byrne,2009-03-12 A New History of Ireland is the largest scholarly project in modern Irish history In 9 volumes it provides a comprehensive new synthesis of modern scholarship on every aspect of Irish history and prehistory from the earliest geological and archaeological evidence through the Middle Ages down to the present day The third volume opens with a character study of early modern Ireland and a panoramic survey of Ireland in 1534 followed by twelve chapters of narrative history There are further chapters on the economy the coinage languages and literature and the Irish abroad Two surveys Land and People c 1600 and c 1685 are included   Cromwellian Ireland Toby Christopher Barnard,2000 In this important study reissued here in paperback along with a new historiographical essay T C Barnard anatomizes the Irish problem of the mid seventeenth century and connects it to the English politics and policies both before and after the interregnum He looks closely at how and by whom Ireland was ruled and how its government was financed and he explores in detail the primary Cromwellian goals in Ireland propagating the Protestant gospel providing English and Protestant education advancing learning and reforming the law

Encyclopedia of Literary Translation Into English: A-L O. Classe,2000   Studia Hibernica ,1992   Beckett Mary Junker,1995 In this work the author guides the reader through Beckett s cultural heritage and then moves on to examine five selected plays including Waiting for Godot and All That Fall Amongst other topics the book focuses on how the Irish language and Hiberno English influenced Beckett s writing   General Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum. Department of Printed Books,1959   The History of Verse Translation from the Irish 1789-1897 Robert Welch,1988-08-12 This study surveys the course of verse translation from the Irish starting with the notorious Macpherson controversy and ending with the publication of George Sigerson s Bards of the Gael and Gall in 1897 Professor Welch considers some of the problems and challenges relating to the translation of Irish verse into English in the context of translation theory and ideas about cultural differentiation   University of California Union Catalog of Monographs Cataloged by the Nine Campuses from 1963 Through 1967: Authors & titles University of California (System). Institute of Library Research,University of California, Berkeley,1972   Irish Sea Studies, 900-1200 Benjamin T. Hudson,2006 Irish Sea studies 900 1200 examines some of the events and personalities round the Irish Sea province at a crucial time in the development of medieval Europe The Irish Sea had been a meeting ground for commerce religion and war throughout centuries and around the first millennium this region of the North Atlantic became a barometer of the changes that were reshaping the lands of northern Europe This volume of revised essays looks at political and cultural contact and change throughout the liquid highway between Ireland and Britain covering topics such as the end of the Viking Age the collapse of the Old English kingdom the earliest contacts with the Normans economic revival and change and religious reform   The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 3, 1800-1900 George Watson,1969 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 3 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries   Irish Historical Studies ,1967

Medieval Ireland, C. 1170-1495 P. W. A. Asplin,1971   The Elizabethans and the Irish David B. Quinn,1966 The views held by sixteenth century Englishmen of the Irish and their way of life were varied and often contradictory This book explores the English impressions of the Irish during the period when England was trying to tighten her grip on Ireland and civilize its inhabitants Attempts to impose English forms of religion law government taxation and social organization met with armed resistance the author describes the old Gaelic society and customs that the Irish fought so desperately to preserve Then turning to contemporary accounts and drawings he presents the differing approaches of the half dozen major writers on the Irish curious surprised hostile censorious nationalistic reforming and paradoxically at times sympathetic and brutal almost in the same breath Descriptions of the Irish by these writers comprise an important part of the book which ends with the inevitable destruction of the old Irish society by Tudor repression and slaughter and the movement of many Irishmen to England and the Continent The volume contains twenty five contemporary illustrations of Irish life Publisher
