possible shocks of fast automobile travel to which the mythical engagement on the day of sailing had condemned me Were the watchers this same gang They must know that the jades were now out of my hands and safe in the museum I could be of no further value to these disappointed gentlemen unless of course they were after revenge Yet that would hardly explain this constant furtive patient watching And why hadn t they struck long before Surely there had been plenty of opportunities Well whoever the watchers were I had determined to give them the most open of chances to get at me I had paid all my bills The sixty six dollars and ninety five cents in my pocket comprised all my worldly goods but no one else had any claim on it Whatever unknown port I was clearing for with severely bare sticks and decks it was with no debts left behind Yes I had determined to decoy my enemies if enemies they were out into the open I had even made up my mind as to where it should be In all New York the loneliest spot at eight o clock of an October night or any night for that matter is the one which by day is the most crowded on all the globe Lower Broadway empty then of all its hordes and its canyon like cleft silent its intersecting minor canyons emptier and quieter even than their desert kin It was there that I would go
