Behavioral Evolution and Integrative Levels G. Greenberg,E. Tobach,2014-05-22 First published in 1984 In this collection of essays Schneirla is identified as a scientist and citizen unafraid to hold and present unpopular ideas Schneirla had always been opposed to the hereditarian views that allowed for the politicalization of psychology and spoke out early against the idea of the genetic basis of behavior It is fitting that his ideas which still form the nexus of the major theoretical criticism of classical ethology now can be seen to stand in opposition to the hereditarian views of socio biology Modern American Environmentalists George A. Cevalasco,Richard P. Harmond,2009-04-27 Modern American Environmentalists profiles the lives and contributions of nearly 140 major figures during the twentieth century environmental movement Included are iconic environmentalists such as Rachel Carson E O Wilson Gifford Pinchot and Al Gore and important but less expected names including John Steinbeck and Allen Ginsberg The entries recount how each individual became active in environmental conservation detail his or her significant contributions trace the influence of each on future efforts and discuss the person s legacy The individuals selected for the book displayed either an unparalleled commitment to the conservation preservation restoration and enhancement of the natural environment or made a major contribution to the growth of environmentalism during its first century With a foreword by environmental historian Everett I Mendolsohn a time line of key environmental events a bibliography of groundbreaking works and an index organized by specialization this biographical encyclopedia is a handy and complete guide to the major people involved in the modern American environmental movement Mark Harvey
