ii John D. Loscher, 2009-09-28 We must seek to build a Russia based on three sound principles Peace Land and Bread NOTHING ELSE William Donaldson newly promoted Charge d'Affaires for the United States Embassy in Petrograd formerly Saint Petersburg Russia could only cringe at hearing Lenins stirring proclamation announcing the primary goals for the Petrograd Soviet These ambitious words ran counter to the aims of his employer the American government As an American diplomat during the administration of President Woodrow Wilson William is obligated to support his countrys self serving objectives But as the husband to Sonjya Mastrova a Russian nation William is torn must he care out his duty or advocate a cause which he knows in his heart to be morally and ethically right Since he was a conscripted diplomat being named embassy charge d'affaires should have been the crowning achievement for William Donaldson However as Russia spirals ever deeper into chaos and revolution his posting becomes a curse Caught up in a web of intrigue woven by Americas inept luxury loving ambassadors William is a witness to the final overthrow of Russias imperial family His dealings with the weak Russian provisional government will provide William with a textbook example chronicling the pitfalls of democracy As the faltering democratic provisional government splinters and becomes mired in gridlock the Russian people become truly desperate Knowing how desperate people will do desperate things the situation becomes ripe for Vladimir Lenin and his henchmen to finally implement their own vision for Russias future without any annoying outside interference When that model is forcibly
