Seven Dilemmas In World Religions:

Seven Dilemmas in World Religions G. Lynn Stephens, Gregory Pence, 1994 And we stretch our minds to comprehend the essence of life as we ponder the Buddhist paradox of soulless reincarnation Workbook for Interfaith Ambassadors Rev. John-Brian Paprock, 2005 The Advaita Worldview Anantanand Rambachan, 2012-02-01 2007 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title In this book Anantanand Rambachan offers a fresh and detailed perspective on Advaita Vedanta Hinduism's most influential and revered religious tradition Rambachan who is both a scholar and an Advaitin attends closely to the Upanisads and authentic commentaries of Sankara to challenge the tradition and to reconsider central aspects of its current teachings His reconstruction and reinterpretation of Advaita focuses in particular on the nature of brahman the status of the world in relation to brahman and the meaning and relevance of liberation Rambachan queries contemporary representations of an impersonal brahman and the need for popular hierarchical distinctions such as those between a higher para and lower apra brahman Such distinctions Rambachan argues are inconsistent with the non dual nature of brahman and are unnecessary when brahman's relationship with the world is correctly understood Questioning Advaita's traditional emphasis on renunciation and world denial Rambachan expands the understanding of suffering duhkha and liberation moksha and addresses socioeconomic as well as gender and caste inequalities Positing that the world is a celebrative expression of God's fullness this book advances Advaita as a universal and uninhibited path to a liberated life committed to compassion equality and justice

The Ethics of Food Gregory E. Pence, 2001-12-29 Food makes philosophers of us all Death does the same but death comes only once and choices about food come many times each day In The Ethics of Food Gregory E Pence brings together a collection of voices who share the view that the ethics of genetically modified food is among the most pressing societal questions of our time This comprehensive collection addresses a broad range of subjects including the meaning of food moral analyses of vegetarianism and starvation the safety and environmental risks of genetically modified food issues of global food politics and the food industry and the relationships among food evolution and human history Will genetically modified food feed the poor or destroy the environment Is it a threat to our health Is the assumed healthfulness of organic food a myth or a reality The answers to these and other questions are engagingly pursued in this substantive collection the first of its kind to address the broad range of philosophical sociological political scientific and technological issues surrounding the ethics of food

Who's Afraid of Human Cloning? Gregory E. Pence, 1998-11-05 Human cloning raises the most profound questions about human nature our faith in ourselves and our ability to make decisions that could significantly alter the character of humanity In this exciting and accessible book Gregory Pence offers a candid and sometimes humorous look at the arguments for and against human cloning Originating a human being by cloning Pence boldly argues should not strike fear in our hearts but should be examined as a reasonable reproductive option for couples Pence considers how popular culture has influenced the way we think about cloning and he presents a lucid and non technical examination of the scientific research and relevant moral issues in the cloning debate This book is a must read for anyone who is concerned about the impact of technology on human life and for those with interests in medical ethics sociology and public policy The Living Church ,1995 God William J. O'Malley,2010-06 Is the existence of God a reasonable premise In this book William O Malley SJ examines this critical question and many other related questions with a rare combination of rigorous gravity and irreverent humor A Jesuit priest and prolific writer O Malley delves into the existence of God by looking at modern science classical philosophy literature and art and the religious traditions of East and West God the Oldest Question provides thoughtful answers for anyone looking to better understand their faith and what it all means Understanding World Religions David Whitten Smith,Elizabeth Geraldine Burr,2007-10-29 Understanding World Religions studies major worldviews in relation to justice and peace Hindu Buddhist Muslim Jewish Christian Marxist and Native American The Israeli Palestinian conflict is given as a case study for how worldviews impact justice and peace Further chapters explore Christian social teaching liberation theologies active nonviolence and just war theory Missiology ,1995 An international review Flesh of My Flesh Gregory E. Pence,1998 A collection of articles by Stephen Jay Gould Leon Kass William Safire Peter Steinfelds and other scientists philosophers bioethicists theologians and law professors on the ethics of human cloning Global Phenomena and Social Sciences Jean-Sylvestre Bergé,Sophie Harnay,Ulrike Mayrhofer,Lionel Obadia,2017-10-26 This book offers new perspectives on global phenomena that play a major role in today s society and deeply shape the actions of individuals organizations and nations In a complex and rapidly changing environment decision makers need to gain a better understanding of global phenomena to adapt and to anticipate the evolution of the global context The authors ten renowned international scholars of anthropology economics law management and political science propose an interdisciplinary and comparative approach to social sciences They analyse how international phenomena such as globalisation or transnationalisation transform the disciplines of social sciences from an epistemological standpoint Explaining what global means in difference disciplines the authors analyse several global phenomena that characterise today s international environment such as the circulation of norms and ideas the linkages between war and globalization corporate governance and the impact of multinational enterprises on sustainable development and poverty reduction Providing examples of analytical disciplinary approaches and guidelines for decision makers in a fast changing global context this book will be useful to scholars and students of anthropology economics law management and political science as well as practitioners in the private and public sectors 7 Ways of Looking at Religion Benjamin Schewel,2017-09-26 An ambitious scholar s lucid analysis of religion s shifting place in the modern world Western intellectuals have long theorized that religion would undergo a process of marginalization and decline as the forces of modernity advanced Yet recent events have disrupted this seductively straightforward story As a result while religion has somehow evolved from its tribal beginnings up through modernity and into the current global age there is no consensus about what kind of narrative of religious change we should alternatively tell Seeking clarity Benjamin Schewel organizes and evaluates the prevalent narratives of religious history that scholars have deployed over the past century and are advancing today He argues that contemporary scholarly discourse on religion can be categorized according to seven central narratives subtraction renewal transsecular postnaturalist construct perennial and developmental Examining the basic logic insights and limitations of each of these narratives Schewel ranges from Martin Heidegger to Muhammad Iqbal from Daniel Dennett to Charles Taylor to offer an incisive broad and original perspective on religion in the modern world The book should be a widely read guide to the ideas that structure many of the debates scholars are having today about the meaning of postsecularism and future of religion Geoffrey Cameron Review of Faith and International Affairs What is the future of religion and how should we narrate its past For all readers interested in these questions this balanced and concise book is a must read Hans Joas Humboldt University Berlin and University of Chicago Chinese Religions Gary Seaman,1998

Subcommittee on Human Resources,2001 Dao Companion to Contemporary Confucian Philosophy David Elstein,2020-12-17 This edited volume presents a comprehensive examination of contemporary Confucian philosophy from its roots in the late 19th century to the present day It provides a thorough introduction to the major philosophers and topics in contemporary Confucian philosophy The individual chapters study the central figures in 20th century Confucian philosophy in China Taiwan and Hong Kong as well as the important influences on recent Confucian philosophy In addition topical chapters focus on contemporary Confucian theory of knowledge ethics politics aesthetics and views of human nature The volume brings together scholars from around the world to provide a sound overview of the philosophy of the period and illustrate the important current debates Confucian philosophy has been undergoing a revival in China for more than three decades and this book presents the most significant work of the past century and more By giving a detailed account of the philosophical positions involved explaining the terminology of contemporary Confucian philosophy and situating the views in their historical context this volume enables the reader to understand what is at stake and evaluate the arguments The World's Religions William A. Young,1995 This text enables introductory level readers to gain an understanding of the world's religions by discussing their history stances on contemporary issues and how they compare and contrast to each other

Saving Sinners, even Moslems Jerzy Zdanowski,2018-10-09 This book investigates the Mission of the Reformed Church in America sent to Arabia in 1889 to preach the Gospel and which operated in the Persian Gulf until 1973 It also explores the various cultural encounters between missionaries and Muslims and discusses conversion and the place of Islam in the Protestant eschatology It maintains that John G Lansing from the New Brunswick Theological Seminary New Jersey who founded the Arabian Mission deliberately dedicated the Mission to direct Muslim evangelism In terms of premillennialism Lansing moved Islam into the very centre of the theological discourse and presented the evangelization of

Muslims as critical for Christ's Second Coming This made the Arabian Mission unique among the American Protestant Missions and placed the Church and missionaries between religious pluralism and the obligations of the Great Commission
