An Exposition of the Old Testament, 1818 The Seventh Covenant J. P. Hannah, 2021-04-12

Scripture springs to life in this immersive narrative written in the tradition of Francine Rivers Bodie and Brock Thoene and Lynn Austin Walk with Jesus and his disciples hear his words afresh witness his miraculous healings and see how he impacts people's lives as he preaches the provocative message that in him the kingdom of God has arrived In Jerusalem Rabbi Hilkiah responds to rising messianic fervor by collating ancient prophecies about the coming of God's Anointed One He dictates these to his niece Rachel who bitterly resents the inferior position of women in society Meanwhile offended Jewish leaders demand that Pontius Pilate take action against the subversive Galilean teacher Jesus Hilkiah's student Daniel meets secretly with an underground resistance group that together with Simon the Zealot and Judas Iscariot plans a violent uprising that will be triggered by the teacher's arrest When Jesus finally enters the city for Passover hailed as a king and riding a donkey in fulfillment of prophecy the stage is set for the explosive convergence of opposing forces and conflicting ambitions This engaging account depicts how Jesus's work fulfilled ancient messianic prophecies and how his crucifixion resurrection and final return will bring to fruition God's promise recorded in Scripture that he will redeem and perfect his creation The Preacher and Homiletic Monthly, 1880
