Freedom's Ferment - Phases of American Social History to 1860 Alice Felt Tyler,2011-03-23 In its first half century

the United States was visited by scores of curious European travellers who came to investigate the strange new world that was being created in the Western Hemisphere In their accounts of the experience they praised or condemned the institutions and national characteristics spread out before them seized avidly upon all differences from the European norm and worried each peculiarity beyond recognition and beyond any just limit of its importance Americans themselves with the keen sensitiveness of the young and the boasting enthusiasm natural to vigorous creators of new ideas and institutions examined the work of their hands and believing it good reassured themselves and answered their calumniators in a flood of aggressive replies Every American interested in a reform movement a new cult or a Utopian scheme burst into print adding another to the rapidly growing list of polemic books and pamphlets From this variety of sources it is possible to recapture something of the inward spirit that gave rise to the more familiar and more tangible events of America s youth The Message of Acts in Codex Bezae Josep Rius-Camps,Jenny Read-Heimerdinger,2006-04-20 A comparison of the message of Acts transmitted by Codez Bezae with that of the more familiar Alexandrian text represented by Codex Vaticanus For each section of Acts there is a side by side translation of the Bezan and Alexandrian manuscripts followed by a critical apparatus and finally a commentary that explores the differences in the message of the two texts It is concluded that the Bezan text with its interest in internal Jewish affairs and its focus on the struggles of the early disciples to free themselves from their traditional Jewish expectations and to achieve despite their mistakes a more accurate understanding of their master s teaching is the earlier of the two texts LNTS 302 Saturday Review ,1979
