

LE LENDemain
à dix heures,
il y avait une foule.

Il avait écrit son carton le soir même
de l'assassinat de sa sœur aînée et il était dans son hôtel
particulier de Bonn.

Il était là, tout seul et désolé, songeant à sa sœur...

... à l'assassinat
qu'il ne pouvait pas empêcher.

Il me fait singulièrement agité, préoccupé, comme si un mystérieux combat se fit dans son âme.

Comme de l'époque où le grand service que j'avais à me demander s'il vaut la peine d'aller chercher chez moi dans le secrétaire de ma chambre, de noter d'ailleurs quelques heures dont je n'ai pas besoin.

Je ne puis changer de ce soir en quelques heures de mon d'aujourd'hui, car il me faut une indéfectible discretion et un silence absolu.

Quant à moi,
je ne puis pas m'occuper de ces choses-là dans cette maison.

"Voilà la clef de cette chambre que j'ai fermée moi-même en sortant, et la clef de son secrétaire."

"Je ne puis pas en dire à moi à moi, j'ai été t'expliquer le carton."

Transcending Boundaries Sandra L. Beckett, 2013-10-11 Transcending Boundaries Writing for a Dual Audience of Children and Adults is a collection of essays on twentieth century authors who cross the borders between adult and children s literature and appeal to both audiences This collection of fourteen essays by scholars from eight countries constitutes the first book devoted to the art of crosswriting the child and adult in twentieth century international literature Sandra Beckett explores the multifaceted nature of crossover literature and the diverse ways in which writers cross the borders to address a dual readership of children and adults It considers classics such as Alice s Adventures in Wonderland and Pinocchio with particular emphasis on post World War II literature The essays in Transcending Boundaries clearly suggest that crossover literature is a major widespread trend that appears to be sharply on the rise

Occult Paris Tobias Churton, 2016-10-14 How fin de si cle Paris became the locus for the most intense revival of magical practices and doctrines since the Renaissance Examines the remarkable lives of occult practitioners Jos phin Peladan Papus Stanislas de Gua ta Saint Yves d Alveydre Jules Doinel and others Reveals how occult activity deeply influenced many well known cultural movements such as Symbolism the Decadents modern music and the psychedelic 60s During Paris s Belle poque 1871 1914 many cultural movements and artistic styles flourished Symbolism Impressionism Art Nouveau the Decadents all of which profoundly shaped modern culture Inseparable from this cultural advancement was the explosion of occult activity taking place in the City of Light at the same time Exploring the magical artistic and intellectual world of the Belle poque Tobias Churton shows how a wide variety of Theosophists Rosicrucians Martinists Freemasons Gnostics and neo Cathars called fin de si cle Paris home He examines the precise interplay of occultists Jos phin Peladan Papus Stanislas de Gua ta and founder of the modern Gnostic Church Jules Doinel along with lesser known figures such as Saint Yves d Alveydre Paul S dir Charles Barlet Edmond Bailly Albert Jounet Abb Lacuria and Lady Caithness He reveals how the work of many masters of modern culture such as composers Claude Debussy and Erik Satie writers Arthur Rimbaud and Charles Baudelaire and painters Georges Seurat and Alphonse Osbert bear signs of immersion in the esoteric circles that were thriving in Paris at the time The author demonstrates how the creative hermetic ferment that animated the City of Light in the decades leading up to World War I remains an enduring presence and powerful influence today Where he asks would Aleister Crowley and all the magicians of today be without the Parisian source of so much creativity in this field Conveying the living energy of Paris in this richly artistic period of history Churton brings into full perspective the characters personalities and forces that made Paris a global magnet and which allowed later cultural movements such as the psychedelic 60s to rise from the ashes of post war Europe

Repair the World Alexandre Gefen, 2024-08-19

Talk of repair has become ubiquitous in recent years In the age of trauma culture art and literature have a new purpose to do justice to console comfort and heal Drawing on works of twenty first century French language literature this monograph shows how literature can not only serve as a means of personal development but expand our capacity for empathy help repair the brokenness implied in victimhood and redress individual and collective traumas Centered on a critical reflection on discourses of repair and reparations it questions the canonical theories on the functions of literature and proposes a new way of writing and reading literary history Praise Repair the World is an invigorating and essential call to arms The modern category of the literary it declares is being outpaced by the contemporary uses of literature as a medium of exorcism empathy reparation testimony commemoration existential renewal and ethical or political connectivity Neither celebrating nor condemning such uses Gefen models a much needed style of criticism interdisciplinary pragmatic relational that comes to grips with their importance Rita Felski the John Stewart Bryan Professor and Professor of English at the University of Virginia USA In an era where self help memoir and autobiography command more than their fair share of publisher s lists in France it s tempting some fifty years after post structuralism s heyday to ascribe an impending death of literature to a taste for narcissistic exhibitionism in French literary culture But why bemoan the waning relevance of the question what is literature asks Alexandre Gefen when evidence abounds in the new century that literary writing increasingly posits itself as a restorative reparative act In the best instances authors who give form to embodied experience imaginatively forge with their readers empathetic bonds of the sort that secular and religious institutions long sustained Repair the World is not only a capacious study of writers who hail from surprisingly broad sectors of French society from health and social workers to skilled laborers journalists and educators it s a situated call for a pragmatics of reading that makes of each book an intervention into the fabric of the real Harnessing sources in affect theory trauma studies ethics and cognitive science Alexandre Gefen performs a critically reparative act all his own reminding us that the notion of literature as autonomous object was itself a historical construct in short an ideology Reading and writing have always conjoined care for the self and care for others and it s upon that reciprocity that the communities of sense of tomorrow can flourish in a spirit of reparative humanism Derek Schilling Professor of French Director of the Centre Louis Marin Department of Modern Languages and Literatures Johns Hopkins University USA Alexandre Gefen s wide ranging thought provoking study takes stock of a paradigm shift in contemporary French literature away from a model of autonomy and intransitivity to ways of writing and reading that seek to repair restore reassure and rebuild From the varied forms of expressivity found in self narratives to the empathetic projections of fiction Repair the World maps out an expanding literary territory that seeks not critical negativity but rather the power to intervene for good in individual and collective life While reserving judgment on the actual extent of literature's effects Gefen demonstrates that contemporary projects and discourses undeniably center the therapeutic and remedial uses of literature With its nuanced readings and keen insights Repair the World has been rightly influential in France its powerful diagnosis of contemporary sensibilities resonates far beyond revealing both the promises and predicaments of literature in the twenty first century Alison James Professor of French and Chair of the Department of Romance Languages and Literatures at the University of Chicago USA What would it mean to ask Sartre's post war question What is literature in the 21st century In this wonderful essay Alexandre Gefen argues convincingly that the main purpose of literature today is to repair a broken world and memorialise forgotten lives Taking examples from predominantly contemporary French literature he proposes that literature as therapy has replaced religions of salvation a politics of emancipation and formal experimentation Today literature's mission is to heal traumatised individuals and communities resurrect the lives of the vulnerable and commemorate their deeds in the face of the forces of oblivion For Gefen Patrick Modiano's Dora Bruder 1997 is the contemporary literary archetype of these lost identities to be rehabilitated and reinhabited Gefen describes this new role for literature without taking sides the writing is lucid compelling and non partisan In an age of victimhood testimony empathy self expression and identity Gefen's reparative paradigm is as persuasive as Sartre's political version in the age of ideology Max Silverman Professor of Modern French Studies University of Leeds UK
