Shanta, 2024-10-15 In 1769 1770 Spanish Catholic missionaries soldiers and Cochino Indians traveled to Alta California They relied on domesticated animals like horses and cattle for food security in the continual expansion of the Spanish empire These rapidly increasing herds consumed traditional sources of Indigenous foods medicines tools and weapons and soon outstripped the ability of soldiers and priests to control them This reality forced the Spanish missionaries to train trusted American Indian converts in the art of cowboying and cattle ranching American Indian Cowboys in Southern California 1493 1941 Survival Sovereignty and Identity by David G Shanta provides new insights into the impact of horses and cattle on the Indigenous peoples of the Spanish Borderlands after early colonization He examines how the American Indian cowboys formed the backbone of Spanish mission economies the international trade in cowhides and tallow that created the Mexican ranchero class known as Californios and later on American cattle operations Shanta shows that California Native peoples adopted cowboying and cattle ranching first as a survival strategy but then also acquiring and running their own herds and forming a new California American Indian economy based on cattle Their new economy reinforced their demands for sovereignty over their ancestral lands with exclusive rights to essential elements including the essential elements of pasture and water This book affirms the innovative nature of American Indian Cowboys and brings to light how they survived kept their cultures alive and gained recognition of their sovereign status Seventy-five Years of Railroad History, 1997 Juana Briones of Nineteenth-century California Jeanne Farr McDonnell, 2008-09-15 Juana Briones de Miranda lived an unusual life which is wonderfully recounted in this highly accessible biography She was one of the first residents of what is now San Francisco then named Yerba Buena Good Herb reportedly after a medicinal tea she concocted She was among the few women in California of her time to own property in her own name and she proved to be a skilled farmer rancher and businesswoman In retelling her life story Jeanne Farr McDonnell also retells the history of nineteenth century California from the unique perspective of this surprising woman Juana Briones was born in 1802 and spent her early youth in

A History of Wine in America from the Beginnings to Prohibition Thomas Pinney,1989-01-01 Tells the story of vitaculture and winemaking in America and discusses the individuals organizations and institutions associated with the enterprise California in the 1930s Federal Writers Project of the Works Progress Administration,2013-04-23 Alive with the exuberance contradictions and variety of the Golden State this Depression era guide to California is more than 700 pages of information that is as David Kipen writes in his spirited introduction anecdotal opinionated and altogether habit forming

Describing the history culture and roadside attractions of the 1930s the WPA Guide to California features some of the very best anonymous literature of its era with writing by luminaries such as San Francisco poet Kenneth Rexroth composer writer hobo Harry Partch and authors Tillie Olsen and Kenneth Patchen A History of Wine in America, Volume 1 Thomas Pinney,2007-09-17 The Vikings called North America Vinland the land of wine Giovanni de Verrazzano the Italian explorer who first described the grapes of the New World was sure that they would yield excellent wines And when the English settlers found grapes growing so thickly that they covered the ground down to the very seashore they concluded that in all the world the like abundance is not to be found Thus from the very beginning the promise of America was in part the alluring promise of wine How that promise was repeatedly baffled how its realization was gradually begun and how at last it has been triumphantly fulfilled is the story told in this book It is a story that touches on nearly every section of the United States and includes the whole range of American society from the founders to the latest immigrants Germans in Pennsylvania Swiss in Georgia Minorcans in Florida Italians in Arkansas French in Kansas Chinese in California all contributed to the domestication of Bacchus in the New World So too did innumerable individuals institutions and organizations Prominent politicians obscure farmers eager amateurs sober scientists these and all the other kinds and conditions of American men and women figure in the story The history of wine in America is in many ways the history of American origins and of American enterprise in microcosm While much of that history has been lost to sight especially after Prohibition the recovery of the record has been the goal of many investigators over the years and the results are here brought together for the first time In print in its entirety for the first time A History of Wine in America is the most comprehensive account of winemaking in the United States from the Norse discovery of native grapes in 1001 A D through Prohibition and up to the present expansion of winemaking in every state The Anatomy of Colorism in America Robb Nelson,2025-04-21 The Anatomy of Colorism in America addresses the significance that colorism racial hierarchy and white skin idealization have each had on the lives of individuals across multiple communities and how those experiences have compared with one another These three complexion based imperial systems culturally legally politically and socially divided persons based on differing skin shades hair textures eye shapes facial angles body types or claims to mythical racial backgrounds The Anatomy of Colorism in America argues that the practices associated with empire building and imperial expansion in America such as manifest destiny settler colonialism and indentured servitude and slavery all led to the creation of these complexion based divisions Once formed these divisions led to socially damaging outcomes for the individuals perceived as nonwhite by the local Anglo American settler colonial class This book documents four locations and communities where such circumstances emerged and compares them The four case studies investigated in this book include Blacks in Charleston South Carolina the Californios in Alta California Mormons in Utah and the relationship between Indigenous Hawaiians Japanese immigrants and Anglo American whites in Hawaii Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature ,1926 Sunset ,1925 California Cultivator ,1900 Take

Control of Your Cancer James W. Forsythe, 2012-05-01 Cancer rates continue to skyrocket and the overall survival rate for Stage IV cancer patients in the United States is a grim 21 percent. Clearly the extensive use of expensive, sometimes ineffective toxins in conventional oncology protocols is a failing strategy. Even the few survivors of these harsh slash and burn treatments can have a dismal quality of life, suffering with ailments such as nerve damage, heart muscle disease, and liver and kidney failure. And unfortunately, many conventional doctors discourage patients from exploring alternative treatment options. A featured doctor in Suzanne Somers' bestselling cancer book Knockout, forty-year oncology veteran James W. Forsythe, M.D., offers a more cost-effective, personalized, and compassionate alternative to traditional cancer treatment in Take Control of Your Cancer: Integrating the Best of Alternative and Conventional Treatments. Dr. Forsythe's integrative approach has yielded an astonishing 46 percent positive response rate in a 500-patient study. In Take Control of Your Cancer, you will find information on all stages of cancer, including warning signs of cancer, how to pinpoint the causes of cancer and to avoid recurrence, preventative measures such as healthy diet and regular exercise, an overview of how to choose what drugs and supplements to use, how to take charge of your cancer treatment and maintain a positive attitude, successful case studies of 40 of Dr. Forsythe's Stage IV cancer patients. While Dr. Forsythe offers his patients conventional and alternative therapies on their own, as well as an integrative option, Take Control of Your Cancer encourages cancer patients and their families to explore their treatment options and look for doctors who personalize treatment for optimal outcomes. California a Guide to the Golden State..., 1947 Kustom Kulture Robert Williams, 1993 Car culture, pinstriping, customising, and cartooning is nearly synonymous with Southern California culture. Kustom Kulture tells the story of the revved-up legends of the custom car cult of the 1950s, 60s, and 70s in Los Angeles. Features art work by Robert Williams, Von Dutch, and Ed Big Daddy Roth. Hot rod art at its best by three masters of the form. 75 Works, 75 Years Laguna Art Museum (Laguna Beach, Calif.), 1993
