popular Washington columnist an explorer who lived among a tribe of headhunters one of Hollywood's most influential gossip columnists and a suspected Nazi spy The latter nearly got Kennedy cashiered out of the Navy but instead set in motion the chain of events that led to him becoming a war hero Inga lived where gossip intersects with history and her story as told by author Scott Farris in Inga is a rollicking story that demonstrates how private lives influence public events It is also a Hitchcockian tale of how difficult it can be to prove innocence when unjustly accused and how as Inga phrased it what was once a halo can slip down and become a hangman's noose In addition to her romance with Kennedy and the attention of Hitler Arvad married three times to an Egyptian diplomat who insisted they never had divorced the brilliant filmmaker Paul Fejos whom Charlie Chaplin considered a genius and the famed cowboy movie star Tim McCoy She also had affairs with noted surgeon Dr William Cahan the prolific writer John Gunther and Winston's Churchill's right hand man Baron Robert Boothby She was pursued by Wall Street financier Bernard Baruch and Swedish industrialist Axel Wenner Gren reputedly the richest man in the world at the time offered her 1 million to have his child Inga was Miss Denmark of 1931 but by all accounts her admirers among the European and American elite loved Inga not for her physical beauty alone but for her joie de vivre She was a genius with people she was daring and adventurous and she was their equal in intellect Like Isak Dinesen and Clare Boothe Luce Inga Arvad led a life that both sheds light on and defies the stereotypes of women of her time

Significant Others Richard Handler, 2004-06-15 Anthropology is by definition about others but in this volume the phrase refers not to members of observed cultures but to significant others spouses lovers and others with whom anthropologists have deep relationships that are both personal and professional The essays in this volume look at the roles of these spouses and partners of anthropologists over the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries especially their work as they accompanied the anthropologists in the field Other relationships discussed include those between anthropologists and informants mentors and students cohorts and partners and parents and children The book closes with a look at gender roles in the field demonstrated by the marriage in the late nineteenth century of the male Anthropological Society of Washington to the Women's Anthropological Society of America Revealing relationships that were simultaneously deeply personal and professionally important these essays bring a new depth of insight to the history of anthropology as a social science and human endeavor

The Most Important Art Mira Liehm, Antonín J. Liehm, 1980-01-01 Beyond Hollywood's Grasp Harry Waldman, 1994

The New Biographical Dictionary of Film David Thomson, 2010 Thomson independent scholar writing of The Biographical Dictionary of Film aka A Biographical Dictionary of the Cinema 1975 edition described it as a personal opinionated and obsessive biographical dictionary of the cinema Thirty five years and several editions later that description still holds true of this expanded work The new dictionary summarizes salient facts about its subjects lives and discusses their film credits in terms of the quality of the filmmakers work In ambition it has competitors including Leslie Halliwell's various editions of Halliwell's Filmgoers Companion 12th ed 1997 and Halliwell's Who's Who in the Movies edited by John Walker 4th ed rev and updated 2006 which cover films and technical terms categories not included in Thomson's but whose entries are neutral and exceedingly brief Additionally Francophile Richard Roud's edited Cinema A Critical Dictionary The Major Filmmakers 2 v 1980 is as passionate a work as Thomson's but narrower in scope with entries written by various experts rather than only by Roud Finally the multivolume magnum opus The International Dictionary of Films and Filmmakers 4th ed 2000 ed by T Pendergast and S Pendergast 2nd ed ed by N Thomas v 1 CH May 91 1st ed ed by C Lyon v 1 2 CH Jan 85 v 3 CH Apr 87 v 4 5 CH Jun 88 covers everything films directors actors writers and production artists with generous measured scholarly entries and lavish illustrations However it looms large and heavy unlike the handy one volume work by Thomson Arguably Thomson's work for its scope is the most fun the most convenient and the most engaging title All libraries supporting people interested in film should buy it It will get lots of use and provide very good value for the money
