Race, Sex, and Social Order in Early New Orleans Jennifer M. Spear, 2009-06-15 Winner 2009 Kemper and Leila Williams Prize in Louisiana History The Historic New Orleans Collection and the Louisiana Historical Association A microcosm of exaggerated societal extremes poverty and wealth vice and virtue elitism and equality New Orleans is a tangled web of race cultural mores and sexual identities Jennifer M Spear s examination of the dialectical relationship between politics and social practice unravels the city s construction of race during the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries Spear brings together archival evidence from three different languages and the most recent and respected scholarship on racial formation and interracial sex to explain why free people of color became a significant population in the early days of New Orleans and to show how authorities attempted to use concepts of race and social hierarchy to impose order on a decidedly disorderly society She recounts and analyzes the major conflicts that influenced New Orleanian culture legal attempts to impose racial barriers and social order political battles over propriety and freedom and cultural clashes over place and progress At each turn Spear s narrative challenges the prevailing academic assumptions and supports her efforts to move exploration of racial formation away from cultural and political discourses and toward social histories Strikingly argued richly researched and methodologically sound this wide ranging look at how choices about sex triumphed over established class systems and artificial racial boundaries supplies a refreshing contribution to the history of early Louisiana

The Sex Goddess in American Film, 1930-1965 Jessica Hope Jordan, 2009 In the first critical study of the sex goddess in film Jessica Hope Jordan illustrates how Jean Harlow uses her sexualized body to affect and seduce viewers away from any primary identification with those characters and their plotlines that are supposed to lead the film to identifying instead with the kind of sexual empowerment and self possession her characters consistently display Linking the idea of sexual empowerment to the filmic and public celebration of hyper feminine sexuality the book additionally covers previous feminist discussions of Mae West's performances as feminist camp to argue that West sought to both celebrate and embody for women viewers what she viewed as cultural ideals of femininity and women's sexuality With Lana Turner and the cinematic code the book considers the many problems inherent in both the filmic and public celebration of hyper feminine sexuality in relation to censorship and considers the effects of the Hays Code on hyper feminine sexuality as depicted in film noir The book also importantly presents the first critical discussion of the actress Jayne Mansfield suggesting that her 1950s open acceptance celebration and public promotion of her feminine sexuality both onscreen and off makes her not only a precursor of the more sexually liberated 60s but also like the other actresses discussed here a kind of prescient performance artist even theorist of feminine sexuality in particular and cultural ideas about sexuality more generally Beyond recouping her image as feminist the book demonstrates how the kind of desire aroused by the sex goddess a desire which remains endlessly suspended works as a supreme example of the aesthetic apparatus of cinema itself outposts of the Gulf Coast Centering New Orleans as the quintessential site for investigating black women's practices of freedom in the Atlantic world Wicked Flesh argues that African women and women of African descent endowed free status with meaning through active aggressive and sometimes unsuccessful intimate and kinship practices Their stories in both their successes and their failures outline a practice of freedom that laid the groundwork for the emancipation struggles of the nineteenth century and reshaped the New World

Lost Sex Isa Schön, Koen Martens, Peter van Dijk, 2009-09-22 Sex is the queen of problems in evolutionary biology Generations of researchers have investigated one of the last remaining evolutionary paradoxes why sex exists at all Given that sexual reproduction is costly from an evolutionary point of view one could wonder why not all animals and plants reproduce asexually Dozens of contemporary hypotheses attempt to explain the prevalence of sex and its advantages and predict the early extinction of fully asexual lineages The major theme of this book is what is the fate of animal and plant groups in which sex is lost Initial chapters discuss theory behind asexual life what major disadvantages do asexual groups have to face what are the genetic and ecological consequences and what does this theory predict for more applied aspects of asexual life for example in agricultural pests diseases as well as in cultural crops such as grapes Cases studies in many animals focusing on both invertebrates and vertebrates and plants reveal parallel but also singularly novel adaptations to the absence of meiosis and syngamy And last but not least are asexuals really doomed to early extinction or do genuine ancient asexuals exist This book assembles contributions from the most important research groups dealing with asexual evolution in eukaryotes It is a milestone in research on parthenogenesis and will be useful to undergraduate as well as graduate students and to senior researchers in all fields of evolutionary biology as the paradox of sex remains its queen of problems

More Sex, Better Zen, Faster Bullets Stefan Hammond, Mike Wilkins, 2020-06-11 How and why did films from Hong Kong a former British Crown Colony and map speck become so popular Post WWII creative freedom was scarce in Asia but Hong Kong was a safe space for filmmakers seeking to profit from overseas Chinese markets and Chinatowns worldwide Both Shaw Brothers and Golden Harvest set up massive operations in Hong Kong and let the celluloid slip By the 1980s Hong Kong's Sammo Hung and Jackie Chan were famous throughout Asia Their winning formula of humour and martial arts prowess ripped through kung fu stereotypes while filmmakers like Tsui Hark and Ringo Lam served up fantasy horror and noir crime dramas for rabid cinemagoing hordes in the grindhouses of Kowloon It was a glorious time This book is the nonpareil true story of the Hong Kong film industry one that doesn't skimp on the good bits the hyperkinetic films themselves Included are intrepid firsthand accounts of the culture and international fanbases to have emerged around these movies More Sex Better Zen Faster Bullets contains the best bits of Sex and Zen A Bullet in the Head 1996 and Hollywood East 2000 the two best known tomes on Hong Kong films of the twentieth century revised and with the inclusion of new material The result is the most comprehensive encyclopedia of Hong Kong film available anywhere

Sex and Sexuality in Latin America Daniel Balderston, Donna Guy, 1997-02-01 Despite the explosion of critical writing on gender and sexuality relatively little work has focused on Latin America Sex and Sexuality in Latin America An Interdisciplinary Reader fills in this gap Daniel Balderston and Donna J Guy assert that the study of sexuality in Latin America requires a break with the dominant Anglo European model of gender To this end the essays in the collection focus on the uncertain and contingent nature of sexual identity Organized around three central themes control and repression the politics and culture of resistance and sexual transgression as affirmation of marginalized identities this intriguing collection will challenge and inform conceptions of Latin American gender and sexuality Covering topics ranging from transvestism to the world of tango and countries as diverse as Mexico Brazil and Argentina this volume takes an accessible dynamic and interdisciplinary approach to a highly theoretical topic Opens up new conceptual horizons for exploring gender and sexuality In stimulating readers to think outside the box of established academic notions of sexuality and gender Sex and Sexuality in Latin America illustrates the sometimes mind boggling mission of iconoclastic scholarship The well written essays are thought provoking analyses on the cutting edge of gender scholarship Latin American Research Review vol 36 no 3 2001 field of study by framing it in light of significant and recent biblical films as well as the voices of key biblical film critics. Non-Hollywood and seemingly non-biblical films also come under investigation. The contributors concentrate on three points: context focusing on the Bible in specific film genres and cultural situations; theory applying theory from both religion and film studies with an eye to their possible intersections; and recent and significant texts reflecting on which texts and themes have been most important in biblical film and which are currently at the fore. Exploring cinema across the globe and accompanied by extended introductory essays for each of the three sections, this companion is an important resource for scholars in both film and biblical reception.
