Inc Portland Or Widows: The Middle East, Asia, and the Pacific Helena Znaniecka Lopata, 1987 What happens when the husband dies depends on the society on the location of the widow in urban rural or class terms and on the widow's own personal resources In some societies the woman is totally dependent upon a grown son and cannot remarry in others such as that in the United States she is more dependent upon her own resources and wishes For some widowhood results in a great loss of status for others it can mean loneliness and social isolation Yet widowhood can mean greater social freedom for some women a blooming of personality Even grief is experienced in various ways and degrees Thus there is no such thing as a widow type only a great heterogeneity in widowhood as in wifehood Volume I analyzes the support systems and life styles of widows in Australia the Philippines Korea Iran China a Pacific island India Turkey and Israel Volume II North America examines two communities in Canada a Florida retirement community and communities in several other locations as well as the relative situations of homeowners blacks and poor ethnic populations Cultural Anthropology of the Middle East, 1992 During the last two decades the number of anthropological studies on the Middle East has increased exponentially This partially annotated bibliography offers a comprehensive survey of studies written in English French and German and covers the period from 1965 to 1987 Honour Killings and Criminal Justice Ferya Taş-Çifçi, 2020-03-06 Despite recent reforms to the Turkish Penal Code the country retains a high level of honour based violence This book analyses the motives behind honour based violence in Turkey and examines the criminal justice system's approach to this type of crime The work takes a socio legal approach to explore the concepts of honour patriarchy and hierarchy along with the roles of culture and tradition It also examines how the legal system deals with this phenomenon focusing on the decisions of the criminal courts in honour killing cases and drawing on prisoner interviews These analyses show the extent to which the State follows a patriarchal approach when dealing with honour killings and inform recommendations for improving the legal and criminal justice system so as to deter crimes of this nature Women's Education in the Third World David H. Kelly, Gail P. Kelly, 2017-05-18 Originally published in 1989 This detailed bibliography focuses on women's education in the developing nations of Asia Africa Latin America and the Caribbean and the Middle East It contains annotations for about 1200 published works in English French Spanish Portuguese and German The entries include extensive research journal monograph and book literature items including chapters hidden in books that don't have women or education as their main theme The citations are organised thematically but with geographic divisions within each of the 15 sections and each entry has a decently detailed summary It is prefaced by a useful article written by Gail Kelly on the directions in research at the time and the development of women centric approaches Women Workers in Turkey Saniye Dedeoğlu, 2007-10-24 Globalisation is often considered as not only generating jobs but also having a negative effect on those at the bottom of the labour supply chain Here Saniye Dedeoğlu shows us exactly how globalisation has affected women engaged in insecure invisible and low unpaid garment work Through a close ethnographic study of women workers in Istanbul's garment industry she reveals how industries have adapted their labour demands to make use of local female labour supplies and highlights the strategies and responses that have evolved in response to contemporary changes in global industrial production in Turkey Dedeoglu shows how production for global markets has seeped into local labour markets contributing to a culture of work which is informal and whose participants are often invisible Women Workers in Turkey throws up the critical question of what it means to be a woman in today's globalised society and is an important contribution to the various perspectives on the social and economic consequences of globalization to the least privileged in industrial societies

Islamist Mobilization in Turkey Jenny White, 2011-06-01 Winner of the William A Douglass Prize in Europeanist Anthropology The emergence of an Islamist movement and the startling buoyancy of Islamic political parties in Turkey a model of secular modernization a cosmopolitan frontier and NATO ally has puzzled Western observers As the appeal of the Islamist Welfare Party spread through Turkish society including the middle class in the 1990s the party won numerous local elections and became one of the largest parties represented in parliament even holding the prime ministership in 1996 and 1997 Welfare was formally banned and closed in 1998 and its successor Virtue was banned in 2001 for allegedly posing a threat to the state but the Islamist movement continues to grow in popularity Jenny White has produced an ethnography of contemporary Istanbul that charts the success of Islamist mobilization through the eyes of ordinary people Drawing on neighborhood interviews gathered over twenty years of fieldwork she focuses intently on the genesis and continuing appeal of Islamic politics in the fabric of Turkish society and among mobilizing and mobilized elites women and educated populations White shows how everyday concerns and interpersonal relations rather than Islamic dogma helped Welfare gain access to community networks building on continuing face to face relationships by way of interactions with constituents through trusted neighbors She argues that Islamic political networks are based on cultural understandings of relationships duties and trust She also illustrates how Islamic activists have sustained cohesion despite contradictory agendas and beliefs and how civic organizations through local relationships have ensured the autonomy of these networks from the national political organizations in whose service they appear to act To illuminate the local culture of Istanbul White has interviewed residents activists party officials and municipal administrators and participated in their activities She draws on rich experiences and research made possible by years of firsthand observation in the streets and homes of Umraniye a large neighborhood that grew in tandem with Turkey's modernization in the late 20th century This book will appeal to anthropologists sociologists historians and analysts of Islamic and Middle Eastern politics

Muslim Laws, Politics and Society in Modern Nation States Ihsan Yilmaz, 2016-12-05 Drawing on theories of legal pluralism this book tests whether and to what extent claims of the modern nation state laws to exclusive dominance over other spheres are tenable and reassesses the operation of law in society Incorporating a combination of legal theory post modern critique and socio legal analysis of three current jurisdictions in which Muslims play an important role the volume identifies Muslims current socio legal situation and attitudes from different perspectives and reconciles them with modern legal systems in three key countries. It analyzes the conflict between the assumptions of modern legal systems and plural legal realities and also examines attempts by modern legal systems to impose official laws in the face of resistance from unofficial Muslim laws and discusses possible responses to the challenge of dynamic Muslim legal pluralism. A valuable resource for students, researchers, and academics with an interest in the areas of Islamic law and politics and the interplay between secular law and religious cultural traditions.
