International Case Studies in Mental Health Senel Poyrazli,Chalmer E. Thompson,2012-04-30 International Case Studies in Mental Health presents a variety of global cases from both developed and developing countries detailing descriptions of the people who are seeking help to eliminate their distress and of the exceptional practitioners who provide the help In most of the cases the practitioner is someone who shares a similar heritage with her or his help seeker and who is influenced at least partly by Western psychotherapy traditions Each chapter also is a showcase of how scholars pair up with mental health practitioners to create a work that weaves together contextual and individual qualities to inform an understanding of the help seeker and the intervention This book aims to help prepare both mental health trainees and practicing professionals to be effective in the provision of healing in their work with people in different regions of the world Consequently the authors hope to offer practitioners a glimpse of what can be achieved in these regions by people whose reputations within the respective communities are strong Resources in Education ,1998 Living More Human(e)ly? Rebecca Leong,2025-04-22

Does it really matter who one chooses to marry and how one makes a choice as to who to marry or is it basically true that you always marry the wrong person Was Jane Austen right in her portrayals of couples marrying for love for comfort or for both What about arranged marriages Does the one exist How about soulmates Will getting involved in casual sex or hook up culture affect one s chances of eventually realizing happy lifelong monogamy Are promoters of purity culture basically right that their approach will help lead to happy lasting marriages Can there be a way forward through the culture wars Are dating apps any good Virtue ethics is sometimes drawn upon for a dependable approach to couple relationships But what does this approach consist of and which virtues as there are potentially very many should one focus on particularly when navigating dating culture in contemporary contexts What light might theology history and the human sciences including sociology and psychology shed on these matters Rebecca Leong offers findings from wide ranging interdisciplinary studies that address these questions and more in the process developing a five fold ethic and further building blocks for better approaches to dating in contemporary contexts The publishers weekly ,1984
