Long Term Perspective Study Of Sub Saharan Africa Vol 2 Economic And Sectoral Policy Issues:

World Bank Anne C. M. Salda,1995 IMF and World Bank Sponsored Structural Adjustment Programs in Africa Kwadwo Konadu-Agyemang,2018-10-24 This title was first published in 2001 Bringing together geographers planners political scientists economists rural development specialists bankers public administrators and other development experts this volume questions the benefits of Structural Adjustment Programmes SAPs It critically assesses the impact of SAPs from a wider perspective than a purely economic one highlighting concerns about impacts of adjustments on the more vulnerable elements of society such as social welfare the environment labour gender and agriculture Revealing both the costs and benefits of the economic restructuring programme the book also suggests alternatives to current development models and how SAPs can be made more sustainable An original and comprehensive addition to the collections of both students and practitioners of development World Bank Assistance to Agriculture in Sub-Saharan Africa ,2007-01-01 Sub Saharan Africa is a critical development priority it has some of the world s poorest countries and during the past two decades the number of poor in the Region has doubled to 300 million more than 40 percent of the Region s population Africa remains behind on most of the Millennium Development Goals MDGs and is unlikely to reach them by 2015 With some of the world s poorest countries Africa is a development priority for the donor community A major drag on Africa s development is the underperformance of the critical agriculture sector which has been neglected both by donors and governments over the past two decades The sector faces a variety of constraints that are particular to agriculture in Africa and make its development a complex challenge Poor governance and conflict in several countries further complicate matters IEG has assessed the development effectiveness of World Bank assistance in addressing constraints to agricultural development in Africa over the period of fiscal 1991 2006 Global Food Projections to 2020 Mark W. Rosegrant,Mercedita Castro Agcaoili-Sombilla,Nicostrato D. Perez,1995 Examines projections of global supply of and demand for food through the year 2020 Looks closely at how alternative population investment and trade scenarios will affect food security and nutrition status especially in the developing world The authors argue that the world is at risk of maintaining its two tiered system of food security with rich and rapidly growing countries enjoying abundant affordable food supplies and poor countries suffering from malnutrition and food scarcity National governments and international agencies can alter this situation through their investment decisions Charts and tables Raising the Productivity of Women Farmers in Sub-Saharan Africa Katrine Anderson Saito,Hailu Mekonnen,Daphne Spurling,1994 World Bank Discussion Paper 230 Based on four country studies and extensive household surveys this paper documents the breakdown of traditional farming systems in Sub Saharan Africa and its implications for the role of women in agriculture Abstracts on Rural Development in the Tropics ,1991 Livestock and Resource Management Policy Simeon Ehui,Michele E. Lipner,1993-01-01 Chinese Aid and African Development D. Bräutigam,1998-06-21 Since 1957 more than 45 African countries have received aid from China yet until recently little has been known about the effectiveness or impact of this assistance Br utigam provides the first authoritative account of China s experience as an aid donor in rural Africa In a detailed and highly readable analysis the author draws on anthropology economics organization theory and political science to explain how China s domestic agenda shaped the design of its aid and how domestic politics in African countries influenced its outcome

Including the Poor Michael Lipton,J. van der Gaag,1993-01-01 Explores the role of government policy in economic development in the Republic of Korea The Republic of Korea has achieved economic success on many fronts Real GNP has tripled every decade since the 1960s A dynamic and flexible manufacturing sector now dominates the economy The benefits of growth have been widely distributed with a sharp decrease in poverty This study like others in the series seeks to draw lessons from such success and to identify and analyze the policies behind this strong economic performance Koreas development strategy and macroeconomic performance are outlined in Part I Several factors are seen to underlie strong growth including the maintenance of a stable macroenvironment flexible and pragmatic policies and investment in infrastructure and human capital Part II assesses the role played by industrial policy since 1961 Particular attention is given to the Heavy and Chemical Industry HCI drive launched in 1973 to diversify and upgrade Koreas industrial sector The authors note that while the HCI has been largely successful it also has been very costly particularly to the financial sector Part III outlines the role of institutions and the close relationships among the government the bureaucracy and business The key to Koreas rapid development according to the authors was the governments commitment to growth and its early focus on equity and wide distribution of the gains from growth The authors also laud the efficiency and effectiveness of Koreas public and private sector institutions which they see as models for all developing nations

Workers' Dilemmas Margaret Grieco,2022-08-24 Originally published in 1996 Workers Dilemmas analyses the management skills of those with least resources the women of the urban poor and finds that there is an abundance of evidence on the high levels of managerial competence within this group It is information which has largely been hidden from history This study of poor women s involvement in the world of work corrects this missing record For over a century 1850 1960s women and children travelled from their urban homes in the East End of London to work in the hop picking fields of Kent and Hampshire The scale of the annual migration and the complexity of neighbourhood and household organization it required to provide this volume of labour have escaped the literature Drawing on a variety of historical records and on oral history this book explores the high level of management and occupational skills possessed by the urban poor in their construction of household survival strategies Above all this book highlights the key entrepreneurial role played by women in this labour market and the importance of the financial support provided by this regular seasonal labour for household survival Workers Dilemmas provides a fresh look at how work patterns family structure and community networks interrelate and in the process challenges accepted ideas in the wider fields of anthropology and the sociology of work
