Looking White People In The Eye Gender Race And Culture In Courtrooms And Classrooms:

Looking White People in the Eye Sherene Razack, 1998-01-01 Examining the classroom discussion of equity issues and legal cases involving immigration and sexual violence Razack addresses how non white women are viewed and how they must respond in classrooms and courtrooms

Gender, Development, and Diversity Caroline Sweetman, 2004 This collection focuses on implications for development goals of poverty alleviation and human rights In particular critiques from Southern women challenge development organisations for their inadequate and inappropriate policy and practice with gender inequality as a key concern

The Courtroom as a Space of Resistance Awol Allo, 2016-03-09 Fifty years before his death in 2013 Nelson Mandela stood before Justice de Wet in Pretoria s Palace of Justice and delivered one of the most spectacular and liberating statements ever made from a dock In what came to be regarded as the trial that changed South Africa Mandela summed up the spirit of the liberation struggle and the moral basis for the post Apartheid society In this blistering critique of Apartheid and its perversion of justice Mandela transforms the law into a sword and shield He invokes it while undermining it uses it while subverting it and claims it while defeating it Wise and strategic Mandela skilfully reimagines the courtroom as a site of visibility and hearing opening up a political space within the legal This volume returns to the Rivonia courtroom to engage with Mandela s masterful performance of resistance and the dramatic core of that transformative event Cutting across a wide range of critical theories and discourses contributors reflect on the personal spatial temporal performative and literary dimensions of that constitutive event By redefining the spaces institutions and discourses of law contributors present a fresh perspective that re sets the margins of what can be thought and said in the courtroom

Coloniality and Racial (In)Justice in the University Sunera Thobani, 2021-11-01 Coloniality and Racial In Justice in the University examines the disruption and remaking of the university at a moment in history when white supremacist politics have erupted across North America as have anti racist and anti colonial movements Situating the university at the heart of these momentous developments this collection debunks the popular claim that the university is well on its way to overcoming its histories of racial exclusion Written by faculty and students located at various levels within the institutional hierarchy this book demonstrates how the shadows of settler colonialism and racial division are reiterated in newer neoliberal practices Drawing on critical race and Indigenous theory the chapters challenge Eurocentric knowledge institutional whiteness and structural discrimination that are the bedrock of the institution The authors also analyse their own experiences to show how Indigenous dispossession racial violence administrative prejudice and imperialist militarization shape classroom interactions within the university

Reclaiming the Rural Kim Donehower, Charlotte Hogg, Eileen E Schell, 2012 Reclaiming the Rural moves beyond typical arguments for the preservation abandonment or modernization of rural communities analyzing how communities in the United States Canada and Mexico sustain themselves economically environmentally intellectually and politically through literate action

Social Justice Education in Canada Ali A.

Abdi,2023-01-03 This engaging edited collection highlights key discussions around educational inequity and related structures and sub structures Featuring a diverse array of contributors Social Justice Education in Canada balances important knowledge learning practices and possibilities emanating from and embedded in anti racist and anti oppressive education with instructive grounding examples The text confronts the idea of social justice as an abstract concept discussing suggestions for rethinking educational systems and making changes that will benefit the learning lives of all students With the aim to critically expand the emerging and increasingly active debates in this important area of educational and social development this volume strives to collectively deepen our understanding and appreciation for critical social justice education Organized into 14 chapters and featuring an epilogue written by Dr Edward Shizha the book critically deals with contemporary topical issues in education including readings on cultural racial religious Indigenous language socio economic citizenship disability ableism and immigrant refugee status realities and their interwoven learning and teaching intersections This text is an essential resource for undergraduate and graduate students of education across Canada FEATURES Designed to spark discussions and debates each chapter closes with discussion questions to encourage critical reflection Contributors move beyond the theoretical with actionable practical applications for critical social justice that can be utilized by educators and teacher educators Intersecting topical diversity is at the forefront of this volume which features contributors from different backgrounds and communities critically engaging with issues pertinent to social justice and equity in education

An Educational Psychology Textbook Equity,2014-10-10 The first half of the book focuses on broader questions and principles taken from psychology per se and the second half focuses on somewhat more practical issues of teaching All parts of the book draw on research theory and practical wisdom wherever appropriate Chapter 2 is about learning theory and Chapter 3 is about development Chapter 4 is about several forms of student diversity and Chapter 5 is about students with disabilities Chapter 6 is about motivation Following these somewhat more basic psychological chapters we turn to several lasting challenges of classroom life challenges that seem to be an intrinsic part of the job Chapter 7 offers ideas about classroom management Chapter 8 ideas about communicating with students Chapter 9 about ways to assist students complex forms of thinking and Chapter 10 about planning instruction systematically The book closes with two chapters about assessment of learning Whiteness and Postcolonialism in the Nordic Region Kristín Loftsdóttir,Lars

Jensen,2016-02-11 This book examines the influence of imperialism and colonialism on the formation of national identities in the Nordic countries exploring the manner in which contemporary discourses in Nordic society are rendered meaningful or obscured by references to past events and tropes related to the practices and ideologies of colonialism Against the background of Nordic exceptionalism it explores the manner in which the interwoven racial gendered and nationalistic ideologies associated with the colonial project form part of contemporary Nordic identities An important challenge to national identities that can become increasingly inward looking Whiteness and Postcolonialism in the Nordic Region sheds light on the ways in which certain notions and structural inequalities understood as residue from the colonial period become recreated or projected onto different groups Presenting a variety of case studies drawn from Sweden Finland Norway Greenland Denmark and Iceland this book will be of interest to scholars across the social sciences and humanities conducting research in the fields of race and ethnicity identity and belonging media representations of the other and colonialism and postcolonialism

The Right to Say No Melanie Randall, Jennifer Koshan, Patricia Nyaundi, 2017-10-19 Marital rape stands at the intersection of the socio legal issues arising from both domestic violence and sexual assault For centuries women who suffered sexual assault perpetrated by their spouses had no legal recourse A man s conjugal rights included his right to have sexual intercourse with his wife regardless of whether she consented This right has been recognised in law and still is in some jurisdictions today This book emerges from the research undertaken by an innovative multi country academic collaborative project dedicated to comparatively analysing the legal treatment of sexual assault in intimate relationships with a view to challenging the legal impunity for and inadequate legal responses to this form of gendered violence

At the Limits of Justice Suvendrini Perera, Sherene Razack, 2014-09-24 The fear and violence that followed the events of September 11 2001 touched lives all around the world even in places that few would immediately associate with the global war on terror In At the Limits of Justice twenty nine contributors from six countries explore the proximity of terror in their own lives and in places ranging from Canada and the United States to Jamaica Palestine Israel Australia Guyana Chile Pakistan and across the African continent In this collection female scholars of colour including leading theorists on issues of indigeneity race and feminism examine the political social and personal repercussions of the war on terror through contributions that range from testimony and poetry to scholarly analysis Inspired by both the personal and the global impact of this violence within the war on terror they expose the way in which the war on terror is presented as a distant and foreign issue at the same time that it is deeply present in the lives of women and others all around the world An impassioned but rigorous examination of issues of race and gender in contemporary politics At the Limits of Justice is also a call to create moral communities which will find terror and violence unacceptable
