of a citizen and his country a universal exploration of just what it is that inoculates the human spirit from dangerous ideologies and toxic nationalism All Lands - a Christian Enigma Samuel Waen Jensen, 2019-12 For me the best science fiction stories happen when there are two or three assumptions made concerning the future space etc and then the author sets out to see where these assumptions might lead in a way that is entertaining yet remains true to the initial assumptions and our physical universe Many of the books I have read dealt with strange and fantastical life forms and the stories have developed elaborate societies customs and even religions often at variance with my own beliefs In short too many science fiction authors seem to be stuck in an agnostic or atheistic realm of thinking Some time ago I began to wonder where my own Christian based assumptions might lead me as we begin to journey out into the universe Soon my imagination took over I created the first few characters started to write and began a wonderful science fiction journey of discovery I found the journey to be at once enlightening entertaining and enjoyable I hope you will as well Pennsylvania Library and Museum Notes ,1927
