Arthur Schneider, 1997-05-15 During his 40 year career the author became one of the industry's most respected television editors receiving seven Emmy nominations and winning four of the coveted awards But it was as a master of the jump cut an editing style in which a sudden cut from one shot to another is made without a fadeout that he is most remembered and the term became his nickname Mr Schneider worked on many of Bob Hope's shows over the years but it was for Laugh In that he fully developed his editing style This is a behind the scenes look at the development of television from the days when some editing was done with a razor blade and tape to the electronic editing of today Along the way Mr Schneider remembers the stars he worked with from Gene Kelly to Redd Foxx Children's Books in Print R R Bowker Publishing, Bowker, 1999-12 Milosz's ABC's Czeslaw Milosz, 2002-01-09 Man has been given to understand that he lives only by the grace of those in power Let him therefore busy himself sipping coffee catching butterflies So muses Polish migrant poet and Nobel laureate Milosz in one of his earlier poems and such might be the principle guiding this most recent collection of his writings Bits and pieces of memoir are ranged in alphabetical order making up a curious glossary of a life lived in Poland and the United States and a literary career spanning six decades Reminiscences of Poland before during and after WWII occupy much of the volume Even when Milosz is chronicling his life since he settled permanently in California in 1960 after a period of exile in France his memories center on friends made in childhood at school in Wilno Brief character sketches are intermixed with reflections on subjects like Milosz s sense of obligation to the Polish language and Polish literary tradition his admiration of poets like Walt Whitman and Joseph Brodsky and more generally on themes like curiosity fame and terror It is these sections that will engage American readers who elsewhere are likely to flounder in a sea of names The fragments of autobiography collected in this edition represent only a selection from the texts of two Polish ABCs and readers will be grateful for the culling It is difficult to escape the sense that Dlike butterflies in a dusty case Dthe scraps of memory affixed here have lost their living glitter
