enduring that brutally cold weather they would just get drunk and then fight with each other They were gang fights but all of them were friends Great sport Unless you were a native there this seemed a bit odd to outsiders So they moved down south hoping for a friendlier and more acceptable way of living and got there in time to meet early integration head on Then they had to learn a new modified Geechee Gullah language in order to communicate with their hired help What they found was that as a rule those Southerners overall were the most gracious friendliest lovable and unique people of all As far as the weather though it was usually more reasonable in one day alone they could have monsoon like rains followed immediately by a metal melting heat wave and topped off with a heavy fog that swooped down over you like a massive wet blanket that made those winters up north seem mild WALNECK'S CLASSIC CYCLE TRADER, AUGUST 2001 Causey Enterprises, LLC,
