From the Material to the Mystical in Late Medieval Piety Racha Kirakosian, 2021-09-30 The German mystic Gertrude the Great of Helfta c 1256 1301 is a globally venerated saint who is still central to the Sacred Heart Devotion Her visions were first recorded in Latin and they inspired generations of readers in processes of creative rewriting The vernacular copies of these redactions challenge the long standing idea that translations do not bear the same literary or historical weight as the originals upon which they are based In this study Racha Kirakosian argues that manuscript transmission reveals how redactors serve as cultural agents Examining the late medieval vernacular copies of Gertrude s visions she demonstrates how redactors recast textual materials reflected changes in piety and generated new forms of devotional practices She also shows how these texts served as a bridge between material culture in the form of textiles and book illumination and mysticism Kirakosian s multi faceted study is an important contribution to current debates on medieval manuscript culture authorship and translation as objects of study in their own right
