A Right Royal Scandal Joanne Major, Sarah Murden, 2016-11-30 From the authors of An Infamous Mistress The tale of two juicy 19th century scandals both concerning the aristocratic Cavendish Bentinck family Cheshire Life Almost two books in one A Right Royal Scandal recounts the fascinating history of the irregular love matches contracted by two successive generations of the Cavendish Bentinck family ancestors of the British royal family The first part of this intriguing book looks at the scandal that erupted in Regency London just months after the Battle of Waterloo when the widowed Lord Charles Bentinck eloped with the Duke of Wellington's married niece Over two decades later and while at Oxford University Lord Charles' eldest son fell in love with a beautiful Romany girl and secretly married her When his alliance was discovered he was cast adrift by his family with devastating consequences A love story as well as a brilliantly researched historical biography this is a continuation of Joanne Major and Sarah Murden's first biography An Infamous Mistress about the eighteenth century courtesan Grace Dalrymple Elliott whose daughter was the first wife of Lord Charles Bentinck The book ends by showing how if not for a young gypsy and her tragic life the British monarchy would look very different today An easy read of a subject that keeps you engrossed from start to finish This book is brilliant for those who enjoy the scandals of historical television with the added authenticity of historical fact History of Royals The plots may seem to come straight out of the world of Regency Romance but they are all true and carefully annotated and verified by Major and Murden Naomi Clifford author of The Murder of Mary Ashford

A sketch of royal visits to Co Kerry commemorating the visit of Queen Elizabeth II to Ireland in 2011. Wrights & Wrongs Peter Wright, 2016-06-23

Peter Wright has been a dancer, choreographer, teacher, producer and director in the theatre as well as in television for over 70 years. In Wrights Wrongs Peter offers his often surprising views of today's dance world, lessons learned and yet to learn from a lifetime's experience of ballet, commercial theatre and television. Peter started his career in wartime with the Kurt Jooss company. He has worked with such greats as Pina Bausch, Margot Fonteyn, Rudolf Nureyev, Marcia Haydée, Richard Cragun, Monica Mason, Karen Kain, Miyako Yoshida and Carlos Acosta as well as today's generation of stars including Alina Cajocar, Marianela Nunez, Natalia Osipova and Lauren Cuthbertson. While now regarded as part of the British ballet establishment for many years, Peter developed his career outside London, particularly in Germany with John Cranko's Stuttgart Ballet. That distance gives him a unique and unrivalled view on ballet companies. His close association with choreographers Frederick Ashton, Ninette de Valois, founder of the Royal Ballet, Kenneth MacMillan and David Bintley gives Peter an authoritative perspective on British ballet. Wrights and Wrongs includes black and white photographs from Wright's career and as Exeunt magazine comments: "Anyone with an interest in British ballet will find plenty to occupy them in Wright's book: the many dramas and delights of his life in dance spring forth from the page with brio." Fifty Years the Queen Arthur Bousfield, Garry Toffoli, 2002-09-01

The half century since Elizabeth II's coronation in 1952 has witnessed many changes, some for good and some for ill. Among these she has been one of the few constants. Fifty Years the Queen recounts her amazing life as Canada and the Commonwealth celebrate the Golden Jubilee of her accession to the throne. Elizabeth II is a figure whose faultless devotion to duty flourishes in an age of individual self gratification, endowed with high spirits and a great sense of humour, she at the same time carries out her duties with unfailing dignity and decorum. The special Golden Jubilee tribute is filled with many beautiful illustrations, including some rarely seen. Proceedings of the Royal Colonial Institute Royal Colonial Institute (Great Britain), 1899
