Lee Epstein, Thomas G. Walker

Rights Liberties And Ideals The Contributions Of Milton R Konvitz:

Rights, Liberties, and Ideals David Joseph Danelski, 1983 Making Civil Rights Law Mark V. Tushnet, 1994 Making Civil Rights Law is an insightful and provocative narrative history of the legal struggle led by Thurgood Marshall and the NAACP Legal Defense Fund which preceded the intense political battles for civil rights Drawing on personal interviews with Thurgood Marshall and other NAACP lawyers as well as new information about the private deliberations of the Supreme Court Tushnet tells the dramatic story of how the NAACP Legal Defense Fund led the Court to use the Constitution as an instrument of liberty and justice for all African Americans He also offers new insights into how the justices argued among themselves about the historic changes they were to make in American society Cities, Citizenship and Jews in France and the United States, 1905-2022 (Volume 1) Josef W. Konvitz, 2023-11-10 This comparative transatlantic two volume work covers nearly 120 years of the history of the rights integration and security of the Jewish people in both the United States and France the countries with the largest and third largest Jewish populations Religious freedom and secularism have evolved differently in France and the United States reinforcing their separate national identities Yet there are parallels to their Jewish history and in how the security of Jews has repeatedly defined and tested the national interests of France and the United States in world affairs Drawing on the author's personal experience as an international civil servant these volumes explore topics such as tensions and common interests between France and the United States the memory of the Shoah social mobility the tepid commitment of the United States to the rights of French Jews during World War II trends in antisemitism and tolerance and global climate change as a threat to largely coastal Jewish communities They highlight what makes insecurity different in the 21st century and why a paradigm shift in policy is needed This title is intended both for a general audience and advanced undergraduate and graduate students interested in Jewish history urban history and international relations Annual Report New York State School of Industrial and Labor Relations, 1983 Constitutional Law: Rights, Liberties and Justice 8th Edition Lee Epstein, Thomas G. Walker, 2013 Judicial decisions never occur in a vacuum they are influenced by a myriad of political factors From lawyers and interest groups to the shifting sentiments of public opinion to the ideological and behavioral inclinations of the justices Epstein and Walker show how all these dynamics play an integral part in the overall development of constitutional doctrine Drawing deeply from the spheres of political science and legal studies the excerpted case material is skillfully analyzed and presented for today's students Known for fastidious revising and streamlining the authors account for the latest scholarship in the field and offer rock solid analysis of recent landmark cases including as all the important opinions handed down through 2011 Building on the successes of the 7th edition the book's clean layout and design clearly distinguishes between commentary and opinion excerpts Not only does the design make the book an easier read for students it effectively showcases photos justice biographies and the Aftermath and Global Perspective sidebars And based on positive user feedback the authors have added even more Aftermath boxes in this
