big horse running free Right fearlessly and game he strode And by my side those dead men rode Whom no one else could see As silently as flies a bird They rode on either hand At every fence I plainly heard The phantom leader give the word Make room for Rio Grande I spurred him on to get the lead I chanced full many a fall But swifter still each phantom steed Kept with me and at racing speed We reached the big stone wall And there the phantoms on each side Drew in and blocked his leap Make room make room I loudly cried But right in front they seemed to ride I cursed them in my sleep Rio Grande's Last
