Chummy's Spirit Hal Clark, 2006-04-26 Chummy's Spirit tells the inspirational story of Cordelia Chummy Johnson who learns that the remains of her son James have been found in Vietnam 32 years after he was reported missing in action. Chummy has never left Louisiana but is determined to visit the site where her son's remains were located. This long-awaited revelation also encourages her to finally inquire about the sketchy details surrounding the death of her husband who was murdered in a New Orleans brothel ten years after James' disappearance. Despite Chummy's amazing faith and extraordinary psychological resources and the support of both her church community and other women who have experienced their own tragic losses, her hopes of visiting Vietnam are constantly challenged by her violent drug-infested New Orleans neighborhood and non-supportive nephew Bryan who believes she's an unrealistic old lady. Bryan reluctantly travels with Chummy to Vietnam. There Mr. Bao Tin, a mysterious ex-North Vietnamese Army officer, escorts them to Cu Chi Tay Ninh and Nha Trang, Vietnam. In addition to seeing where James' remains were found, Chummy and Bryan meet the Vietnamese woman that James had planned to marry.

May the Road Rise Up to Meet You Peter Troy, 2012-02-28 An engrossing epic American drama told from four distinct perspectives spanning the first major wave of Irish immigration to New York through the end of the Civil War. Four unique voices, two parallel love stories, one sweeping novel rich in the history of nineteenth-century America. This remarkable debut draws from the great themes of literature: famine, war, love, and family, as it introduces four unforgettable characters. Ethan McOwen is an Irish immigrant whose endurance is tested in Brooklyn and the Five Points at the height of its urban destitution; he is among the first to join the famed Irish Brigade and becomes a celebrated war photographer. Marcella, a society girl from Spain, defies her father to become a passionate abolitionist. Mary and Micah are slaves of varying circumstances who form an instant connection and embark on a tumultuous path to freedom. All four lives unfold in two beautiful love stories which eventually collide. Written in gorgeous language that subtly captures the diverse backgrounds of the characters and interspersed with letters, journals, and dreams, this unforgettable story, rendered in cinematic detail, is about having faith in life's great meaning amidst its various tangles.

Rise Up Singing Cecelie Berry, 2009-02-04 From a dazzling array of well-known African American women, short fiction, poems, and personal essays that describe with warmth and humor their experiences as mothers and as daughters. A sparkling anthology devoted to exploring the lives of African American mothers. Rise Up Singing presents the stories and reflections of such beloved and respected artists, journalists, and authors as Alice Walker, Faith Ringgold, Marita Golden, Martha Southgate, Tananarive Due, Maya Angelou, Gwendolyn Brooks, Deborah Roberts, Rita Dove, and others. It features original and previously published writings organized by editor Cecelie Berry by themes: mothering, work, family, children, community, and love that illuminate the multiple roles of black mothers at home in the neighborhood and in the world as a whole. Rise Up Singing brings together the perspectives of women of different ages backgrounds and accomplishments What shines through in their writings are the hopes shared by all mothers As Marian Wright Edelman writes in the Foreword The mothers writing in this anthology speak in a range of voices They are joyful stressed grateful ambivalent determined disappointed and in bad ways and good overwhelmed But over and over again we see mothers struggling with the push striving to give their children their best and to make sure the world gives their children its best hard as that fight may be     Rootless Chris Howard,2012-11-01 A dazzling eco thriller set in a terrifying world with some chilling similarities to our own 17 year old Banyan is a tree builder Using salvaged scrap metal he creates forests for rich patrons who seek a reprieve from the desolate landscape Although Banyan s never seen a real tree they were destroyed more than a century ago his missing father used to tell him stories about the Old World Everything changes when Banyan meets a mysterious woman with a strange tattoo a map to the last living trees on earth and he sets off across a wasteland from which few return Those who make it past the pirates and poachers can t escape the locusts the locusts that now feed on human flesh But Banyan isn t the only one looking for the trees and he s running out of time Unsure of whom to trust he s forced to make an alliance with Alpha a beautiful dangerous pirate with an agenda of her own As they race towards a promised land that might only be a myth Banyan makes shocking discoveries about his family his past and how far people will go to bring back the trees     Twenty Years of the Journal of Historical Sociology Yoke-Sum Wong,Derek Sayer,2009-03-23 Over the last twenty years the Journal of Historical Sociology has redefined what historical sociology can be These essays by internationally distinguished historians sociologists anthropologists and geographers bring together the very best of the JHS Volume 1 focuses on the British state Volume 2 on the journal s wider interdisciplinary challenges The second in a two volume anthology representing the best articles published in The Journal of Historical Sociology over the last twenty years Includes essays debates and responses written by internationally distinguished historians sociologists anthropologists and geographers as well as by pioneering new scholars have been influential in challenging and redefining the field of historical sociology Spans a range of issues and topics that combine rich empirical scholarship with sophisticated theoretical engagement bringing together the very best of the JHS Challenges the nature of undertaking interdisciplinary work within history and the social sciences A wide exploration of the historiographical taking us beyond Europe and often highlighting unconventional approaches to the disciplines     Cousin Joe Pleasant "Cousin Joe" Joseph,Harriet J. Ottenheimer,2012-01-31 A remarkable blend of history and drama seen through the eyes of a noted New Orleans bluesman This extraordinary life history is the result of more than 15 years of recorded conversations pieced together into a narrative of a uniquely American experience Joseph s colorful portrayals of the characters who parade through his life document more than 70 years of changing relationships between blacks and whites In his own words he describes growing up in Louisiana working a rice plantation and how Gospel music put him on a career path His candid remarks underscore the economic necessity prevalent in a musician s life Within the tales of gigs card games and romantic exploits are intimate glimpses of legendary figures including Billie Holiday and Muddy Waters His descriptions of performing in New Orleans New York and Europe are especially revealing filled with life experiences as rich as the rhythm and lyrics of the blues he played The One-eyed Man Larry L. King, 2001 In the 1960s when the Supreme Court rules that African Americans must be admitted to the university in an unnamed Southern state Governor Cullie Blanton is about to run for re election One of his opponents is Bayonet Bill Wooster an ex marine general who bases his campaign on fear of racial integration fear of Communists and fear of the federal government he presents himself as the leader in a holy war against the incumbent infidel The other candidate is Poppa Posey a former governor who raises hound dogs quotes Shakespeare and hopes to use Wooster s money to split support for Blanton Only Blanton understands that integration is inevitable and that his task must be to make the transition as painless and bloodless as possible That he fails may be due in part to his freewheeling power driven personality But Blanton is also defeated by inertia tradition and demagoguery He is as he once describes himself someone who just got in the way of goddamn history Is the state Texas and the governor Lyndon B Johnson King denies it arguing that there are equal parts of Huey Long Herman Talmadge and Alfalfa Bill Murray But as Erisman says in his foreword Blanton in his wheeling and dealing his crudities and profanity his ruthlessness and his compassion is a dead on portrait of LBJ in full cry The One Eyed Man presents a hauntingly clear picture of the 1960s in the South the national grief over the assassination of President John F Kennedy the racial turmoil the human dilemma faced by North and South alike And it poses haunting questions for the reader what separates the demagogue from the leader What injustices are acceptable in the name of a larger justice Who determines the greatest good for the greatest number The Cross and the Cantina Stephen C.
