Matthew Head explores the cultural meanings of Mozart's Turkish music in the composer's 18th century context in subsequent discourses of Mozart's significance for Western culture and in today's not entirely post colonial world Unpacking the ideological content of Mozart's numerous representations of Turkey and Turkish music Head locates the composer's exoticisms in shifting power relations between the Austrian and Ottoman Empires and in an emerging orientalist project At the same time Head complicates a presentist post colonial critique by exploring commercial stimuli to Mozart's turquerie and by embedding the composer's orientalism in practices of self disguise epitomised by masquerade and carnival In this context Mozart's Turkish music offered fleeting liberation from official and proscribed identities of the bourgeois Enlightenment Makers of Music Robert Farquharson Sharp, 1913

Americas David Buisseret, Steven G. Reinhardt, 2000 Creolization the process of cultural interchange in this case between peoples of the continents bordering the Atlantic Ocean is an important aspect of the American experience Language literature food dress and social relations are all affected by the interplay of cultures Only recently though have scholars fully begun to understand creolization as a mutual exchange rather than the acculturation of colonized peoples to a dominant culture Focusing on diverse settings and different aspects of culture five scholars here examine the process of creolization its origins historical and modern meanings of the term and the various manifestations of the complex continuing process of cultural exchange and adaptation that began when Africans American Indians and Europeans came into contact with each other While the authors vary in their approaches and in some respects their conclusions they essentially agree that the notion of cultural syncretism whether described as acculturation or creolization is a conceptual tool of crucial importance for analyzing the interchange that occurred between peoples of Europe and the Americas Contributors to this ground breaking volume and their respective chapters are David Buisseret The Process of Creolization in Seventeenth Century Jamaica Daniel H Usner Jr The Facility Offered by the Country The Creolization of Agriculture in the Lower Mississippi Valley Mary L Galvin Decoctions for Carolinians The Creation of a Creole Medicine Chest in Colonial South Carolina Richard Cullen Rath Drums and Power Ways of Creolizing Music in Coastal South Carolina and Georgia 1730 1790 and J L Dillard The Evidence for Pidgin Creolization in Early American English Buisseret also contributes an introduction that places the other articles within the context of recent scholarship on creolization The United States Catalog ,1913 Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress,1970 Beginning with 1953 entries for Motion pictures and filmstrips Music and phonorecords form separate parts of the Library of Congress catalogue Entries for Maps and atlases were issued separately 1953 1955
