Rising To The Challenge In Asia:

The Economies of Southeast Asia Teofilo C. Daquila, 2005 This book analyses the growth development and crisis experiences of the Southeast Asian economies in particular Indonesia Malaysia the Philippines Singapore and Thailand also known as ASEAN 5 The proposition is developed that the robust economic performance of the Southeast Asian economies during the past four decades has been attributed to the various factors developments and independent national policies which have been pursued by the individual member countries rather than to any regional economic framework The book covers eleven topics which is suitable for a one semester course on the economics of Southeast Asia Also it has a narrower area coverage as it focuses only on the five economies namely Indonesia Malaysia the Philippines Singapore and Thailand The sectoral treatment of the crisis impact and the analytical treatment of policy responses to the crisis differentiate this book from other publications on the same topic Finally this book provides an analysis of national developments policies and factors which have contributed to the economic transformation of the respective Southeast Asian economies Rising to the Challenge in Asia: People's Republic of China, 1999 Shaping U.S. Military Forces for the Asia-Pacific Michael R. Kraig, 2014-06-04 The first twenty years of post Cold War US defense and diplomatic policies toward Asia have looked a good deal like the previous 50 namely continued deterrence based upon overwhelming offensive military predominance In East Asia all powers harbor common and divergent interests based on fragmented nationalist identities and complex economic interdependence In this multipolar Asian system new Chinese military capabilities could support both the wish to secure its own interests as well as a more expansive vision for regional leadership which might harbor a destabilizing geopolitical agenda How the United States addresses this reality via military procurements and employment concepts for the Asian theater could either detract from or enhance crisis stability The US defense establishment must reorient its force posture to save money manage conflicts of interest and prevent future interstate crises This analysis provides a framework for how the United States should ideally structure and use military power so as to best support the diplomatic resolution of conflicting interests without resorting to full scale warfare It also critiques the usual Western military focus on offensive strategic predominance in force postures itself often fuelled by the unrealistic pursuit of the opponent's complete submission via victory in decisive battles Current Politics and Economics of Asia, 2005 The United States and Asia Robert G. Sutter, 2019-10-17 Now in a fully revised and updated edition this cogent book provides an overview of the historical context and enduring patterns of U S relations with Asia Noted scholar Robert G Sutter offers a balanced analysis of post Cold War dynamics in Asia which involve interrelated questions of security economics national identity and regional institution building He demonstrates how these critical concerns manifest a complex mix of realist liberal and constructivist tendencies that define the regional order He describes how the United States has responded to Asia's growing strength and importance while at the same time trying to maintain its leading position as an Asian power despite China's rising influence Considering the most important transition in American policy toward Asia since the end of the Cold War Sutter assesses the growing U S China rivalry that now dominates both regional dynamics in the Asia Pacific and U S policy in the region The Challenge to Asia Charles Foster Ryder,1913 Energy, Trade and Finance in Asia Tai Wei Lim,2015-10-06 This study offers a vital reappraisal of the trade relationship between north east Asia and the Gulf Writing from a non western standpoint Dargin and Lim make a compelling case for how these regions became economically integrated in the wake of the 1973 oil crisis Asia Reimagined: A Vision for the Future Pasquale De Marco,2025-03-09 Asia is on the rise In recent decades the region has experienced unprecedented economic growth lifting hundreds of millions of people out of poverty Asia is now home to some of the world s largest and most dynamic economies and its influence on the global stage is growing rapidly But Asia also faces a number of challenges The region is home to some of the world s poorest countries and inequality is a major problem Environmental degradation is also a serious issue as Asia s rapid economic growth has come at a high cost to the environment Despite these challenges Asia has the potential to become a major engine of global growth and prosperity The region s young and dynamic population is a major asset and its growing middle class is creating new markets for goods and services Asia is also home to some of the world s most innovative and entrepreneurial companies This book explores the challenges and opportunities facing Asia in the 21st century Drawing on the insights of leading experts from around the world it provides a comprehensive overview of the region s political economic social and environmental landscape This book is essential reading for anyone who wants to understand the future of Asia It provides a comprehensive overview of the region s challenges and opportunities and it offers insights into how Asia can build a more prosperous and sustainable future This book is a must read for anyone interested in Asia the global economy or the future of our planet If you like this book write a review Rising to the Challenge in Asia: Overview ,1999 The Challenge of Asia Stanley Rice,1925

Congress. House. Committee on International Relations. Subcommittee on Asia and the Pacific,2005 Rising to the Challenge in Asia: An overview ,1999 Asia in the New Millennium Lai To Lee,Amitav

Acharya, 2004 Some 120 participants attended the inaugural Congress of the Asian Political and International Studies Association APISA in Singapore on 28-30 November 2003. Asians from universities and institutes in many countries accounted for about 70 per cent of the participants. The First Congress had been two years in the making. In November 2001, 30 academics from research institutes, think tanks, and universities introduced the idea of launching an Asian-based academic organisation dedicated to the advancement of political and international studies. It was the general consensus of the meeting that Asian scholars had been marginalised from the decision-making processes of the Western-based associations of a similar nature. Asian schools of thought had been stifled as a consequence of the American hegemony in the social sciences and that the state of Asian studies in general was underdeveloped. In the light of these concerns, the APISA was established. Drawn from academia and think tanks from across Asia and the Pacific, the political and security specialists, sociologists, historians, and economists exchanged ideas and charted new intellectual terrain on the theme 'Asia in the New Millennium: Development, Democracy, and Security'. The keynote speaker at the Congress was Dr Surin Pitsuwan, former Foreign Minister of Thailand and Member of the Commission for Human Security, who focused on the need to pursue prominence in Asian scholarship. Panels at the APISA Congress transcended disciplinary contours, national and regional boundaries, and historical confines. The panels' themes ranged from globalisation, identity and community in Asia to electronic government and theory and modernity. Offering more regional lenses were panels that discussed understanding and explaining Asia-Pacific security and the welfare state in Southeast Asia, China and her neighbours. Among the many panels that engaged other disciplines were the discussions on state vs. market, the historical contributions in the panel on defining Southeast Asia as a region, and sociological inclinations in the panel on culture, politics, and cooperation. READERSHIP: Policy makers, researchers, tertiary students, and all those interested in politics and international relations.

Investments and the Economic Security Turn in Europe Francesca Ghiretti, 2025-01-10. Focusing on inward foreign direct investment (FDI) screening, this book provides an in-depth analysis of how European states' economic interactions with China have become a security issue. Based on 100 interviews with scholars, journalists, policy makers, and politicians from across Europe, the book underscores the importance of the policy-making process that led to the adoption of investment screening in European nations. It adopts the theory of securitization to analyse the passage of the status of Chinese FDI from economy to security. In doing so, it shows how the shifting view of Europeans is attributed to changes such as China's growing economic presence, the persistence of non-market practices, the loss of competitiveness, and the use of economic statecraft.

Strategic Asia 2012-13: China's Military Challenge Dan Blumenthal, 2012 In Strategic Asia 2012 13 China's Military Challenge leading experts assess and forecast the impact of China's growing military capabilities What are China's strategic aims What are the challenges and opportunities facing the United States How is the region responding to China's military power and to the U.S. policy of strategic rebalancing

Security Cooperation in Northeast Asia T.J. Pempel, Chung-Min Lee, 2012-06-14 Defining and conceptualizing Northeast Asia's security complex poses unique quandaries The security architecture in Northeast Asia to date has been predominately U.S. dominated bilateral alliances weak institutional structures and the current Six Party Talks dealing with the North Korean nuclear issue There has been a distinct lack of desire among regional countries as well as the U.S. to follow in the footsteps of Europe with its robust set of multilateral institutions However since the late 1990s there has been burgeoning interest among regional states towards forming new multilateral institutions as well as reforming and revitalizing existing mechanisms Much of this effort has been in the economic and political arenas with the creation of bodies such as the East Asian Summit but there have also been important initiatives in the security sphere This book offers detailed examinations about how this potentially tense region of the world is redefining certain longstanding national interests and shows how this shift is the result of changing power relations the desire to protect hard won economic gains as well as growing trust in new processes designed to foster regional cooperation over regional conflict Presenting new and timely research on topics that are vital to the security future of one of the world's most important geographical regions this book will be of great value to students and scholars of Asian politics regionalism international politics and security studies
