Scofield Thayer And The Dial An Illustrated History:

Scofield Thayer and The Dial Nicholas Joost,1964 Modernist Authorship and Transatlantic Periodical Culture Amanda Sigler,2022-06-30 Exploring the collaborative consumer oriented Modernism that developed out of both planned and fortuitous groupings in periodicals this book traces the serialization and advertisement of Henry James s The Turn of the Screw in Collier s 1898 Rudyard Kipling s Kim in McClure s and Cassell s 1900 1901 James Joyce s Ulysses in the Little Review 1918 1920 and Virginia Woolf s Mrs Dalloway in Bond Street in the Dial 1923 These periodicals whether mass market journals or literary magazines adjust our perceptions of authors elsewhere known to be in charge and reveal the central role that compromise and chance played in the emergence of Modernism Bringing to light new research from multiple archives Sigler pieces together original records of journals advertising strategies previously unpublished editorial correspondence and long buried letters to unearth the forgotten stories behind the texts we think we know so well

American Sculpture in the Metropolitan Museum of Art: A catalogue of works by artists born between 1865 and 1885 Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),Lauretta Dimmick,Donna J. Hassler,1999 Volume One This volume catalogues the distinguished and comprehensive collection of approximately 400 works of American sculpture by artists born before 1865 This publication includes an introduction on the history of the collection s formation particularly in the context of the Museum s early years of acquisitions and discusses the outstanding personalities involved Metropolitan Museum of Art website Modernism Edited Victoria Bazin,2019-02-20 Examines Marianne Moore s editorship of the modernist magazine the Dial between 1925 and 1929As editor of the Dial Moore wielded considerable cultural authority in the world of arts and letters yet cultural histories of modernist magazines have largely overlooked her editorial influence Modernism Edited Marianne Moore and the Dial Magazine makes visible Moore s contribution to the production of modernism even as it complicates the concept of editorial agency It explores the public face of the modernist editor the image of highbrow distinction circulated by the Dial and embodied by the figure of Miss Moore It also examines Moore s editorial practice as a form of modernist contractility drawing on her own poetics to understand more fully the motives underpinning her revisions It returns to the well known case of Moore s radical cuts to Hart Crane s poem The Wine Menagerie as well as instances of collaborative struggle with Williams Carlos Williams Gertrude Stein Paul Rosenfeld and D H Lawrence In doing so the book conceptualises editorial labour as a form of creative and critical social practice Key Features Returns to controversial case of Moore s revisions to Hart Crane s The Wine Menagerie Uncovers evidence that points to Moore s revisions to the work of other well known modernistsConceptualizes editorial agencyDevelops methodologies for critically engaging with magazine contentUncovers and analyses Moore s advertisements for the *Dial*Produces a sustained analysis of Moore s editorial comments for the *Dial*Draws on Moore s poetics to understand her editorial revisions Poetry in the Museums of Modernism Catherine E. Paul,2002 How modernist writers experienced the Louvre the British Museum and the Museum of Natural History and how these museums influenced their writing The Degenerate Muse Robin G. Schulze, 2013-09-19 The early twentieth century marked a dramatic shift in the American conception of nature This book analyzes the ways in which the scientific recasting of American nature as an antidote for degeneration influenced work of important modernist writers Harriet Monroe Ezra Pound and Marianne Moore Josephine Herbst's Short Fiction Barbara Wiedemann, 1998 A native of Iowa and long time resident of Pennsylvania Josephine Herbst 1892-1969 well known and highly regarded in the 1930s was the author of seven novels twenty seven short stories a biography and numerous journal and newspaper articles In the current study the first on Herbst's short fiction the author provides a critical discussion of each of Herbst's stories including relevant biographical and historical data Ralph Ellison and Kenneth Burke at the Roots of the Racial Divide Bryan Crable, 2012 Ralph Ellison and Kenneth Burke focuses on the little known but important friendship between two canonical American writers The story of this fifty year friendship however is more than literary biography Bryan Crable argues that the Burke Ellison relationship can be interpreted as a microcosm of the American racial divide Through examination of published writings and unpublished correspondence he reconstructs the dialogue between Burke and Ellison about race that shaped some of their most important works including Burke's A Rhetoric of Motives and Ellison's Invisible Man In addition the book connects this dialogue to changes in American discourse about race Crable shows that these two men were deeply connected intellectually and personally but the social division between white and black Americans produced hesitation embarrassment mystery and estrangement where Ellison and Burke might otherwise have found unity By using Ellison's nonfiction and Burke's rhetorical theory to articulate a new vocabulary of race the author concludes not with a simplistic healing of the divide but with a challenge to embrace the responsibility inherent to our social order American Literatures Initiative Bodies of Poems Lennart Nyberg, 2009 The traditional borders between the arts have been eroded to reveal new connections and create new links between art forms Cultural Interactions is intended to provide a forum for this activity It will publish monographs edited collections and volumes of primary material on points of crossover such as those between literature and the visual arts or photography and fiction music and theatre sculpture and historiography Becoming Modern Carolyn Burke, 1996-07-25 The poet and visual artist Mina Loy has long had an underground reputation as an exemplary avant gardist Born in London of mixed Jewish and English parentage and a much photographed beauty she moved in the pivotal circles of international modernism in Florence as Gertrude Stein's friend and Marinetti's lover in New York as Marcel Duchamp's co conspirator and Djuna Barnes's confidante in Mexico with the greatest love the notorious boxer poet Arthur Cravan in Paris with the Surrealists and Man Ray Carolyn Burke's riveting authoritative biography Becoming Modern brings this highly original and representative figure wonderfully alive in the process giving us a new picture of modernism and one woman's important contribution to it Hints and Disguises Celeste Goodridge, 1989 Painted Shadow Carole Seymour-Jones, 2009-12-23 By the time Vivienne Eliot was committed to an asylum for what would be the final nine years of her life she had been abandoned by her husband T S Eliot and shunned by literary London Yet Vivienne was neither insane nor insignificant She generously collaborated in her husband s literary efforts taking dictation editing his drafts and writing articles for his magazine Criterion Her distinctive voice can be heard in his poetry And paradoxically it was the unhappiness of the Eliots marriage that inspired some of the poet s most distinguished work from The Family Reunion to The Waste Land This first biography ever written about Vivienne draws on hundreds of previously unpublished papers journals and letters to portray a spontaneous loving but fragile woman who had an important influence on her husband s work as well as a great poet whose behavior was hampered by psychological and sexual impulses he could not fully acknowledge Intriguing and provocative Painted Shadow gracefully rescues Vivienne Eliot from undeserved obscurity and is indispensable for anyone wishing to understand T S Eliot Vivienne or the world in which they traveled The Poems of T. S. Eliot, Volume I T. S. Eliot, 2018-12-04 The first volume of the first paperback edition of The Poems of T S Eliot This two volume critical edition of T S Eliot s poems establishes a new text of the Collected Poems 1909 1962 rectifying accidental omissions and errors that have crept in during the century since Eliot s astonishing debut The Love Song of J Alfred Prufrock In addition to the masterpieces The Poems of T S Eliot contains the poems of Eliot s youth which were rediscovered only decades later poems that circulated privately during his lifetime and love poems from his final years written for his wife Valerie Calling upon Eliot s critical writings as well as his drafts letters and other original materials Christopher Ricks and Jim McCue have provided a commentary that illuminates the imaginative life of each poem This first volume respects Eliot s decisions by opening with his Collected Poems 1909 1962 as he arranged and issued it shortly before his death This is followed by poems uncollected but either written for or suitable for publication and by a new reading text of the drafts of The Waste Land The second volume opens with the two books of verse of other kinds that Eliot issued Old Possum s Book of Practical Cats and Anabasis his translation of St John Perse s Anabase Each of these sections is accompanied by its own commentary Finally pertaining to the entire edition there is a comprehensive textual history that contains not only variants from all known drafts and the many printings but also extended passages amounting to hundreds of lines of compelling verse An Eye on the Modern Century Henry McBride, Steven Watson, 2000-01-01 Philippe Sands has extensively revised this leading textbook to include all new developments since 1994 including all the international case law ICJ ITLOS WTO human rights etc and new international legislation genetically modified organisms the Kyoto Protocol oil pollution chemicals etc It is the most comprehensive account of the principles and rules relating to the protection of the environment and the conservation of natural resources It incorporates all the key material from the 1992 Rio Declaration and subsequent developments Topics include the legal and institutional framework the field s historic development standards for general application in addition to the protection of the atmosphere oceans etc the techniques available for implementation such as the environmental impact assessment and liability compensation for environmental damage It will be used on its own as an academic course text as
