Scottish Houses And Gardens From The Archives Of Country Life:

Scottish Houses and Gardens Ian Gow, 1997 It has been over 100 years since Country Life magazine began to commission leading architectural photographers to record the great country houses of the British Isles This book features 20 of the most important and remarkable houses in Scotland from the archive A Passion for Castles Janet Brennan-Inglis, 2022-10-06 In the 1880s two Edinburgh architects began to survey measure and sketch the castles of Scotland travelling the length and breadth of the country on trains bicycles and on foot Together they produced the five magnificent volumes of The Castellated and Domestic Architecture of Scotland an unrivalled work of research that surveys more than 700 of Scotland's castellated buildings ranging from great medieval fortresses to small lairds houses with pepper pot turrets and is illustrated with thousands of sketches and plans The first part of A Passion for Castles tells the life stories of David MacGibbon and Thomas Ross and their work as Edinburgh architects before they embarked on their magisterial survey revealing interesting and previously unknown details about the two men The second part of the book sets their enormously ambitious castles project in its historical context and describes how MacGibbon and Ross managed to achieve their pioneering systematic and comprehensive survey The final part of the book provides a regional overview of the current status of all the castles surveyed by MacGibbon and Ross followed by a thematic exploration of those that have been lost those that have been transformed and those at risk of collapse before posing questions about what the future holds for the castles of Scotland Gardens of the Arts and Crafts Movement Judith B. Tankard, 2018-11-27 The ever alluring Arts and Crafts garden is profoundly relevant to our 21st century needs Sam Watters author of Gardens for a Beautiful America In Gardens of the Arts and Crafts Movement landscape scholar Judith B Tankard surveys the inspirations characteristics and development of garden design during this iconic movement Tankard presents a selection of houses and gardens of the era from Great Britain and North America With almost 300 illustrations and photographs and an emphasis on the diversity of designers who helped forge the movement Gardens of the Arts and Crafts Movement is an essential resource for this truly distinct approach to garden design Country Life, 1999 'Magnificent Castle' of Culzean and the Kennedy Family Michael Moss, 2019-08-06 Culzean Castle on the Ayrshire coast is the most visited property of the National Trust for Scotland This lavishly illustrated book tells the whole history of the castle The Country Houses of Robert Adam Eileen Harris, 2007 Providing a pictorial survey of Robert Adam's distinctive architectural style this book looks at the architecture furniture and interior design from some of his most notable town and country houses Irish Houses and Gardens Seán D. O'Reilly, 1998 This book offers a selection of 200 of the Country Life most outstanding photographs with an historical background to foster an appreciation of some of Ireland's greatest buildings The Victorian Country House Michael Hall, 2009 The English country house reached its apotheosis in the nineteenth century Designed by the most eminent architects of the age the houses were bigger more elaborate and more lavishly furnished than ever before becoming a byword throughout the world for luxury technological innovation and convenience of plan Michael Hall's new survey draws on the Country Life archive to present the most complete visual record yet published of the Victorian country house. Chronologically arranged to span the decades from the 1830s to the 1890s the houses range from the High Gothic of Tyntesfield to Ferdinand Rothschild's flamboyantly French Waddesdon Manor and Philip Webb's Arts and Crafts interiors at Standen. Victorian houses have suffered more from sales and demolitions than houses from any other period. The Country Life images are the only record of great houses such as Wrest Park, Thoresby Hall and Hewell Grange in their heyday. Houses that have survived with their interiors intact but are little known to the public are also featured such as Flintham Hall and the Earl of Harrowby's Sandon Hall. Here too are spectacular colour photographs of some of the most celebrated houses of the period from A.W.N. Pugin's Scarisbrick Hall to J.D. Crace's astonishing interiors at Longleat. With over 150 superb photographs and a commentary by one of the world's leading authorities on the subject this book provides an excellent overview of a major period in British architectural history. Michael Hall is an architectural historian and the Editor of Apollo magazine. A former Architectural Editor and Deputy Editor of Country Life he is a Fellow of the Society of Antiquaries, a trustee of Emery Walker's Arts and Crafts house and Chairman of the Victorian Society's activities committee. His books include The English Country House: From the Archives of Country Life also published by Aurum, Architecture of England, Scotland, and Wales. Nigel R. Jones, 2005-06-30. The British terrain is a gold mine for the student of architecture. Ranging in era from ancient times to the present day from Stonehenge to the Millennium Dome this volume's 76 entries include palaces, castles, bridges, churches, country houses and various public buildings and monuments as well as such well-known features of British architecture and design as terraced houses, suburban semi-detached houses and public telephone kiosks. Detailed yet accessible to nonspecialist readers the alphabetical entries also provide cross-references and lists of additional information sources in both print and electronic formats. Appendixes list the entries by location, architectural style and architect/designer, explain the defining characteristics of major British architectural styles and discuss the importance of the Crown, peerage and Parliament in British architectural history. Besides a detailed subject index the volume includes a timeline, a general bibliography, a glossary of architectural terms and an introduction that traces the development of British architecture from prehistoric and Roman times to the 21st century. Written by an associate professor of architecture at Oklahoma State University, Architecture of England, Scotland and Wales part of Greenwood's Reference Guides to National Architecture series presents architectural biographies of these countries' most famous and significant structures. Country Life Illustrated, 2009. Chopin in Britain Peter Willis, 2017-12-14. In 1848 the penultimate year of his life Chopin visited England and Scotland at the instigation of his aristocratic Scots pupil Jane Stirling. In the autumn of that year he returned to Paris. The following autumn he was dead. Despite the fascination the composer continues to hold for scholars this brief but important period and his previous visit to London in 1837 remain little known. In this richly illustrated study Peter Willis draws on extensive original documentary evidence as well as cultural artefacts to tell the story of these two visits and to place them into aristocratic and artistic life in mid nineteenth century England and Scotland In addition to filling a significant hole in our knowledge of the composer s life the book adds to our understanding of a number of important figures including Jane Stirling and the painter Ary Scheffer The social and artistic milieu of London Manchester Glasgow and Edinburgh are brought to vivid life Architectural Heritage ,2007 Avery Index to Architectural Periodicals Avery Library,1997 Scotland's Lost Houses Ian Gow,2006 Since 1945 it has been estimated over 200 major houses have been lost in Scotland through fire dry rot mining subsistence or simply demolition resulting from the prohibitive cost of upkeep Ian Gow features details of 20 of the country s most important lost houses Visions of Scotland's Past John R. Hume,2000 Published in honour of John R Hume this book contains a selection of papers relating to Scottish history and Scotland s building heritage Tackles issues relating to historical archives and records including still photography and cinema Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1971

Carl Larsson Ann J. Topjon,2008 Carl Larsson 1853 1919 is perhaps the most renowned Swedish artist in his own country and beyond He rose from an impoverished childhood and youth to find the perfect expression for his artistic talent in watercolors winning medals in France at the Salons This is the first comprehensive bibliography on Larsson and with approximately 5900 entries encompasses all known works by him including albums book illustrations and any articles he wrote and or illustrated in all languages and countries The bibliography also documents and annotates the plethora of materials about him in all languages including monographs incidental books encyclopedia articles and exhibition catalogs as well as the numerous journal and newspaper articles written about him during his lifetime and up to the present BOOK JACKET The Tree Experts Mark Johnston,2021-08-02 Trees are now in the public eye as never before The threat of tree diseases the felling of street trees and the challenge of climate change are just some of the issues that have put trees in the media spotlight At the same time the trees in our parks gardens and streets are a vital resource that can deliver environmental social and economic benefits that make our towns and cities attractive green and healthy places Ever since Roman times when amenity trees were first planted in Britain caring for those trees has required specialist skills This is mainly because of the challenges of successfully integrating large trees into the urban environment and the risks involved in working with them often at height and in close proximity to people buildings and roads But who are the people with the specialist expertise to care for our amenity trees While professionals such as horticulturists landscape architects conservationists and foresters have a role to play it is the arboriculturists who are the tree experts For centuries arboriculture was often synonymous with forestry or considered an aspect of horticulture until it emerged in the nineteenth century as a separate discipline There are now some 22 000 people employed in Britain s arboricultural industry including practical tree surgeons and arborists local authority tree officers and arboricultural consultants This is the first book to trace the history of Britain s professional tree experts from the Roman arborator to the modern chartered arboriculturist It also discusses the influences from continental Europe and North America that have helped to shape British arboriculture over the centuries The Tree Experts will have particular appeal to those interested in the natural and built environment heritage landscapes social history and the history of gardening

Ascendancy Women and Elementary Education in Ireland
Eilís O'Sullivan, 2017-06-30 This book outlines the lives of six female members of the Irish Ascendancy and describes their involvement with educational provision for poor children in Ireland at the end of the long eighteenth century It argues that these women were moved by empathy and by a sense of duty and that they were motivated by political considerations pragmatism and especially religious belief The book highlights the women's agency and locates their contribution in international and literary contexts and by exploring sources and evidence not previously considered it generates an enhanced understanding of Ascendancy women's involvement with the provision of elementary education for poor Irish children This book will appeal to scholars and researchers in the fields of Education and History of Education It will also have broad appeal for those interested in Gender and Women's Studies in Georgian Ireland and in the history of Ascendancy families and estates
