Scotland in feature film Sandra-Elisabeth Haider, 2002-11-22 Inhaltsangabe Abstract At Glasgow's University Library I discovered a book about Scotland on film Scotch Reels Originally Scotch Reels is the title of a research carried out in 1982 about the depiction of Scotland on screen It was revealed then that the predominant image of Scotland was very much engaged with stereotypes defined as the heather and haggis image by one of the book's critics and had obviously nothing to do with the contemporary reality of Scotland Not surprisingly that radical view has found a lot of stern critics On superficial examination when I think of all the recent films set in Scotland ranging from the historical epos Braveheart to the contemporary fast paced drug story Trainspotting to mention two of the more popular examples it seems to me that contemporary films set in Scotland show a wider spectrum of Scottish life than they apparently did before the 1980s when the stories were mostly with a few exceptions only set in the Highlands or on an island in a community far away from contemporary modern and industrial life As a classic example of those films one can mention the musical Brigadoon by Vicente Minnelli from the year 1954 However in my thesis I want to concentrate on films set in the City of Glasgow since there would be far too much material concerned if I considered every single available recent film set in Scotland I would like to find out whether the image of Glasgow has improved or widened in its conception through the release of recent films compared to its depiction in older movies As I could not analyse all recent feature films set in Glasgow in this context I decided to concentrate on a few examples By taking a closer look at these films I hope to be able to demonstrate how varied or one sided as will be determined the contemporary portrayal of the city is I do not want to omit mentioning my awareness of the fact that my selection is very subjective Had I selected other movies the result would naturally have been a different one Also I have not taken into account television films or series set in the Glasgow area Especially in recent years a whole range of series has been produced and broadcasted for instance the surreal hospital drama Psychos starring Douglas Henshall the controversial Tinsel Town set in Glasgow s lively clubbing scene or Glasgow Kiss which portrays the city as a modern airy place inhabited by sympathetic educated middle class people

Mullins Collection of Best New Horror Aaron Mullins, 2013-01-17 Four short horror stories with a twist Stay up late with the twisted minds of four authors whose aim is to tell short horror stories that send a chill down the spine of their readers Tales that have you checking underneath the bed or wondering whether that shadow in the corner just moved In this collection you will find short stories from the early writing careers of four horror authors all guaranteed to trigger a feeling of dread deep into your bones as your shaking fingers struggle to turn the page A dark secret is revealed in My Natalie a tale of vengeful love A home with a hidden past threatens to destroy a young family in The House The restless spirit of a young girl has to deliver an important message in Phantom Memory Finally thrill seeking Melanie gets more than she bargained for as she explores the mysterious festival in The Secrets of Hidden Places A short thrilling journey through four horror stories that reflect the stage each author had reached with their craft captured in time as they emerge into the world of writing We hope you enjoy taking this terrifying journey with us And the horrors that await you
