Screaming Of The Innocent:

Expressions of the Body Charlotte Baker, 2009 This book contributes to a growing corpus of writing on the body bringing new perspectives to this fascinating and topical subject Feminist psychoanalytic and queer readings among others have demonstrated the extent of the functions and roles fulfilled by the body as well as the number of critical perspectives it can serve However by and large African representations of the body have been overlooked This coherent volume brings together essays on the portrayal of the body in African art film literature photography and theatre The book includes thematically linked contributions which explore issues of power and representation and reflects current trends in the study of the body and more broadly within the field of African Studies Knowing Differently G. N. Devy, Geoffrey V. Davis, K. K. Chakravarty, 2015-08-12 This book offers a bold and illuminating account of the worldviews nurtured and sustained by indigenous communities from across continents through their distinctive understanding of concepts such as space time joy pain life and death It demonstrates how this different mode of knowing has brought the indigenous into a cultural conflict with communities that claim to be modern and scientific Bringing together scholars artists and activists engaged in understanding and conserving local knowledge that continues to be in the shadow of cultural extinction the book attempts to interpret repercussions on identity and cultural transformation and points to the tragic fate of knowing the world differently The volume inaugurates a new thematic area in post colonial studies and cultural anthropology by highlighting the perspectives of marginalized indigenous communities often burdened with being viewed as primitive It will be useful to scholars and students of anthropology sociology cultural studies history linguistics literature and tribal studies A Woman's Silent Screams Mamie Harkless, 2005 A Woman's Silent Screams is the poignant tale of a woman struggling with the emotional strain of caring for her elderly mother who suffers from Alzheimer's disease while dealing with the chaos of her own dysfunctional marriage Throughout her life Mavis Maxwell has managed to suppress the screams of frustration that reverberate in her head but lately everything is spinning out of control Amid the turmoil of care giving Mavis learns that she cannot always be there for her mother a once independent and courageous woman now battling Alzheimer's disease After her mother dies Mavis reminisces about her childhood in an old white house with a tin roof in the deeply segregated South In the meantime her third marriage begins to fall apart She starts to question her faith in God the choices of politicians and the heart wrenching decisions she was forced to make while caring for her hundred year old mother A Woman's Silent Screams takes an introspective look at the circle of life marriage friendship and family as well as the bonds shared by the strong women of this family Now Is the Time for Running Michael Williams, 2011-07-05 When tragedy strikes Deo's love of soccer is all he has left Can he use that gift to find hope once more Just down the road from their families Deo and his friends play soccer in the dusty fields of Zimbabwe cheered on by Deo's older brother Innocent It is a day like any other until the soldiers arrive and Deo and Innocent are forced to run for their lives fleeing the wreckage of their village for the distant

The Silent Scream Sandra A. Jones, 2010-11 THE SILENT SCREAM As an early teenager Sharon moved with her family to a part of the country not far from where she had grown up but culturally it was a million miles away She endured the hardships of not being accepted in school or in the community and then one day she realized that she was a stranger in her own family Sharon tried to reason whether her parents had always been that way or if they had been coerced into accepting a strange way of life They had become treasonous enemies against her very soul Eventually she was forced to change or become a good actor in order to survive to adulthood She felt confused not knowing what to do or where to go she was only sixteen Thinking she would endure a loveless marriage and build a normal life for herself she made mistakes She had no intention of letting the children she bore become a product of that destructive environment she would flee one way or another Later in life thousands of miles away she encountered even greater challenges than she had experienced in the place from which she had escaped Relative power governed the world of her teens A turn to politics showed her another world of falsehoods Greed money and the search for truth ruled her life as an adult There was no winning no life of normalcy until the truth finally set her free Like following a true compass she found her refuge and learned that success is a journey not a destination

Total Recall I Anagba Jibunor, 2015-03-13 Total Recall 1 is not a one story coherent book though This is to say that it does not zero in on one story from beginning to the end Rather it is a collection of different stories put together into a small book From the story of a kingdom a small town that divides against itself when the British brings their system of government in which political parties are formed to contest against each other Members of the different political parties begin to fight Members of one party would attack members of another party both physically and diabolically Then the military intervenes by staging a coup The nation plunges into war The same actors in the political party wars begin to use the military to try to destroy their erstwhile political enemies by inventing false accusations against one another To the story of a woman who marries into a land thats far away from her own In the new environment she is just like an orphan No mother no father no near next of kin Circumstances of life play it well to take advantage of her helplessness by accusing her of murder by witchcraft To stories of African mysticism The stories are as diverse as they are many Total Recall 1 is a new kid in the block The stories are so unique there is a good chance you have not read any story like some of them before It is written to introduce the world to Africa the real everyday Africa Not the Africa of fiction or the Africa of twisted tales that early European explorers fed their kinsfolk at home Strangely enough these tales have stuck and refused to die It is my hope that through the knowledge gained from this book the world will begin to understand why Africans do their things the way the world has become accustomed to The stories in this book will introduce the world to the
