The Reading and Preaching of the Scriptures in the Worship of the Christian Church: The medieval church Hughes Oliphant Old, 1998 The Reading and Preaching of the Scriptures in the Worship of the Christian Church is a multivolume study by Hughes Oliphant Old that canvasses the history of preaching from the words of Moses at Mount Sinai through modern times In Volume 1 The Biblical Period Old begins his survey by discussing the roots of the Christian ministry of the Word in the worship of Israel He then examines the preaching of Christ and the Apostles Finally Old looks at the development and practice of Christian preaching in the second and third centuries concluding with the ministry of Origen

The Silence of God during the Passion Daniel Bourguet, 2016-08-03 God's silence during the passion is certainly a silence towards man but in particular God was silent towards Christ in his perfect and complete humanity It is also the silence of the Father towards the Son At first sight this silence is troubling and perhaps shocking suggesting that God is in fact absent However the author invites us to go beyond this first impression and the silence turns out to be of tremendous richness overwhelming depth and surprising beauty We are invited to refocus our attention and discover what the Father is saying in a completely new way These pages sing with love for God and our meditation of the passion narratives draws us into deep contemplation of the One they celebrate the Crucified

Passion and Virtue David Blewett, 2001-01-01 Richardson's novels reveal the conflict of human passion in all its aspects love lust and suffering This conflict is considered and critically analysed in fourteen essays all originally published in Eighteenth Century Fiction

Monographic Series Library of Congress, Meditations on the Incarnation, Passion, and Death of Jesus Christ Catharina Regina von Greiffenberg, 2010-04-15 Read by Protestants and Catholics alike Catharina Regina von Greiffenberg 1633 94 was the foremost German woman poet and writer in the seventeenth century German speaking world Privileged by her social station and education she published a large body of religious writings under her own name to a reception unequalled by any other German woman during her lifetime But once the popularity of devotional writings as a genre waned Catharina's works went largely unread until scholars devoted renewed attention to them in the twentieth century For this volume Lynne Tatlock translates for the first time into English three of the thirty six meditations restoring Catharina to her rightful place in print These meditations foreground women in the life of Jesus Christ including accounts of women at the Incarnation and the Tomb and in Scripture in general Tatlock s selections give the modern reader a sense of the structure and nature of Catharina s devotional writings highlighting the alternative they offer to the male centered view of early modern literary and cultural production during her day and redefining the role of women in Christian history
