Long Shadows Truth Lies And History:

Long Shadows Erna Paris, 2015-05-05 One of the most urgent issues facing the world today is how countries shape historical memory in the aftermath of calamity making decisions that cast long shadows into the future Combining gripping storytelling with sharp observation Erna Paris takes us on an extraordinary journey through four continents to explore how nations reinvent themselves after cataclysmic events She travels through the United States with its long buried memory of slavery to South Africa where the Truth and Reconciliation Commission struggles to heal the wounds left by apartheid to Japan France and Germany where the unresolved pain of Hiroshima and the Holocaust still resonate and to the former Yugoslavia where she exposes the cynical shaping of historical memory Through its insightful analysis Long Shadows compels us to question where we stand as individuals in relation to our own collective histories Erna Paris is the winner of ten national and international writing awards three for Long Shadows She is the author of six critically acclaimed books of literary non fiction including The End of Days A Story of Tolerance Tyranny and the Expulsion of the Jews from Spain which won the 1996 Canadian National Jewish Book Award for History She lives in Toronto Winner of the Pearson Writers Trust Non Fiction Award the inaugural Shaughnessy Cohen Prize for Political Writing and the Dorothy Shoichet prize for history from the Canadian Jewish Book Awards Long Shadows is magnificent I would love to see this book taught in every history class in America Iris Chang author of The Rape of Nanking Enlightening Riveting Paris raises questions of enormous importance Kirkus Paris convincingly demonstrates that memory is not only selective but subject to calculated efforts to serve personal needs and national interests The Christian Science Monitor Erna Paris gives us a rich if p

Erna Paris, 2001 Award winning writer Erna Paris chronicles her journey over four continents into the shifting terrain of war and memory Combining gripping storytelling with insight and sharp observation Paris takes us to places of reckoning be they courtrooms or concentration camps and finds hope in the way ordinary people grapple with the conflicts of our time the aftermath of World War II in Japan slavery in the U S apartheid in South Africa and the legacy of the Holocaust in Germany and France

Race and Reconciliation John B. Hatch, 2009-12-01 Hatch develops a robust rhetorical theory of reconciliation and applies it to contemporary national and global efforts to redress the racialized wounds and injustices created by slavery What emerges from this work is a profound vision for the prospects of meaningful reparation forgiveness and reconciliation in American race relations

Dr Dr I feel like... doing a PhD Lucy Russell, 2008-05-20 This book explores what a PhD is and the challenges and rewards of completing this journey There is no one way to complete a doctorate but there are a number of wrong ways like having your ego flattered into it or because you can't think of what else you would like to do This book is about what is like to submit yourself to the process of doing a doctorate It is about how it feels to be a research student the elation the guilt the isolation the self doubt the loneliness It also describes the practical issues such as choosing a topic finding funding writing a research proposal different methods of research the literature review academic writing the question of truth in research the relationship between student and supervisor maintaining a clear focus and the viva examination Lucy Russell Accessible and well written this guide will be invaluable reading for anyone thinking about embarking on or completing a PhD

Clio's Warriors Tim Cook,2011-11-01 Clio s Warriors examines how the Canadian world war experience has been constructed and reconstructed over time Tim Cook elucidates the role of historians in codifying the sacrifice and struggle of a generation as he discusses historical memory and writing the creation of archives and the war of reputations that followed each of the world wars on the battlefield Only recently have academic military historians pushed the discipline to explore the impact of war on society Even so the publications of official historians remain the central narrative of the national experience In analyzing where the profession has come from and where it needs to go Clio s Warriors plays a vital role in the ongoing challenge of writing critical history It will be an essential addition to the library of all Canadian military historians and students of military history and historiography

What Shall We Tell the Children? Stuart J. Foster,Keith A. Crawford,2006-04-01 The pages of this book illustrate that as instruments of socialization and sites of ideological discourse textbooks are powerful artefacts in introducing young people to a specific historical cultural and socioeconomic order Crucially exploring the social construction of school textbooks and the messages they impart provides an important context from within which to critically investigate the dynamics underlying the cultural politics of education and the social movements that form it and which are formed by it The school curriculum is essentially the knowledge system of a society incorporating its values and its dominant ideology The curriculum is not our knowledge born of a broad hegemonic consensus rather it is a battleground in which cultural authority and the right to define what is labelled legitimate knowledge is fought over As each chapter in this book illustrates curriculum as theory and practice has never been and can never be divorced from the ethical economic political and cultural conflicts of society which impact so deeply upon it We cannot escape the clear implication that questions about what knowledge is of most worth and about how it should be organized and taught are problematic contentious and very serious

Flowers After the Funeral Richard J. Cox,2003 This is not a book I ever intended to write It emerged as I worked to understand the events of September 11 2001 It is my effort to make sense of my life and my profession during a difficult time My aim is to suggest that understanding information technology requires an understanding of society and its people and organizations especially as we look out over the wreckage of the high tech industry and the contradictory aims of government to protect and control us Richard Cox In this series of four essays Richard J Cox explores the social and professional ramifications of 9 11 on our information landscape Musing written on the first anniversary of the terrorist attacks looks back at a year of change and commemoration Reacting examines the impact of 9 11 on a department of information sciences Preparing is a cogent argument for the need to rethink current disaster and contingency planning practices Teaching focuses on the author s experiences developing and teaching a doctoral seminar on the role of the information professional in a post 9 11 world Miss Manners assures us that a floral arrangement is always appropriate no matter how much time has passed since the event Neither a cautionary tale nor practical advice Flowers After the Funeral is one such bouquet its simplicity and thoughtfulness are certain to provide both comfort and inspiration to its recipients Cultural Studies Vol18 Issue 2 Various Authors,2021-12-24 Issue 2 3 2004 includes articles on rethinking everyday life the myth of everyday life the persistence of everyday everyday tragedy and creation time and space in everyday life everyday utopianism profane illuminations a different life looking at Barthes and Foucault routine and ambiguity shame presences a mundane voice limitations and consumption of digital commodities in everyday life to name a few Democracy under Construction Ursula J. van Beek,2005-09-12 The book compares five newly emerged democracies in Europe South East Asia Latin America and Africa Cutting across vastly different historical and cultural backgrounds it tells the story of how societies come to terms with a painful past and how politics culture and the economy intertwine in the process of creating new democratic nations Historical Knowledge, Historical Error Allan Megill,2007-02 In the past thirty years historians have broadened the scope of their discipline to include many previously neglected topics and perspectives They have chronicled language madness gender and sexuality and have experimented with new forms of presentation They have turned to the histories of non Western peoples and to the troubled relations between the West and the rest Allan Megill welcomes these developments but he also suggests that there is now confusion among historians about what counts as a justified account of the past In Historical Knowledge Historical Error Megill dispels some of the confusion Here he discusses issues of narrative objectivity and memory He attacks what he sees as irresponsible uses of evidence while accepting the art of speculation which incomplete evidence forces upon historians Along the way he offers succinct accounts of the epistemological road historians have traveled from Herodotus and Thucydides through Leopold von Ranke and Alexis de Tocqueville and on to Hayden White Natalie Zemon Davis and Lynn Hunt
