Page, 2008-01-01 Precocious in childhood irrepressible in old age Miss Topaz Edgeworth's singular accomplishment is to live out an entire century in unflagging and mostly oblivious optimism At once outmoded and unconventional tyrannical and benign Topaz leads a largely unexamined life But the magical quality of her consciousness revealed through stunning narrative technique makes her into one of the most delightful characters in Canadian literature Published in 1949 The Innocent Traveller is Ethel Wilson's most original literary achievement Perception, Learning and the Self D. W. Hamlyn, 2022-06-01 First published in 1983 Perception Learning and the Self is a collection of essays demonstrating the incompleteness of the information processing model in cognitive psychology and the connection between epistemic factors and social conditions in the making of the self It is suggested that any framework employed to view cognition must be an essentially social one in which knowers are seen as selves who are agents with feelings and attitudes Professor Hamlyn argues that by failing to acknowledge this social element the information processing model presents an overly simplistic view of the systems that underlie cognition and thus is liable to distort what is at stake Professor Hamlyn considers the contributions of a number of major psychologists to this area of study including James Gibson Jean Piaget and Sigmund Freud This book will be of interest to students of philosophy and psychology Herald of Gospel Liberty Elias Smith, 1915 The Rosy Crucifixion: Plexus Henry Miller, 1965 The second novel of Miller's frank autobiographical trilogy continues to use fantasy dream and burlesque to portray the life of a struggling writer in pre World War I New York The Bookman, 1905 The School News and Practical Educator, 1913
