Look With Us At Animals:

On God and Dogs Stephen H. Webb, 1998 Many of us keep pet animals we rely on them for companionship and unconditional love For some people their closest relationships may be with their pets In the wake of the animal rights movement some ethicists have started to re examine this relationship and to question the rights of humans to own other sentient beings in this way In this engaging and thought provoking book Stephen Webb brings a Christian perspective to bear on the subject of our responsibility to animals looked at through the lens of our relations with pets especially dogs Webb argues that the emotional bond with companion animals should play a central role in the way we think about animals in general and against the more extreme animal liberationists defends the intermingling of the human and animal worlds He tries to imagine what it would be like to treat animals as a gift from God and indeed argues that not only are animals a gift for us but they give to us we need to attend to their giving and return their gifts appropriately Throughout the book he insists that what Christians call grace is present in our relations with animals just as it is with other humans Grace is the inclusive and expansive power of God's love to create and sustain relationships of real mutuality and reciprocity and Webb unfolds the implications of the recognition that animals too participate in God's abundant grace Webb's thesis affirms and persuasively defends many of the things that pet lovers feel instinctively that their relationships with their companion animals are meaningful and important and that their pets have value and worth in themselves in the eyes of God His book will appeal to a broad audience of thoughtful Christians and animal lovers

Thinking Animals Kari Weil, 2012-05-01 Kari Weil provides a critical introduction to the field of animal studies as well as an appreciation of its thrilling acts of destabilization Examining real and imagined confrontations between human and nonhuman animals she charts the presumed lines of difference between human beings and other species and the personal ethical and political implications of those boundaries Weil's considerations recast the work of such authors as Kafka Mann Woolf and Coetzee and such philosophers as Nietzsche Heidegger Derrida Deleuze Agamben Cixous and Hearne while incorporating the aesthetic perspectives of such visual artists as Bill Viola Frank Noelker and Sam Taylor Wood and the visual thinking of the autistic animal scientist Temple Grandin She addresses theories of pet keeping and domestication the importance of animal agency the intersection of animal studies disability studies and ethics and the role of gender shame love and grief in shaping our attitudes toward animals Exposing humanism's conception of the human as a biased illusion and embracing posthumanism's acceptance of human and animal entanglement Weil unseats the comfortable assumptions of humanist thought and its species specific distinctions

Animals Erased Arran Stibbe, 2012-01-01 Amazingly clear and incisive readings of a wide range of discourses related to animals and ecology from the author of Ecolinguistics Karla Armbruster coeditor of Beyond Nature Writing Animals are disappearing vanishing and dying out not just in the physical sense of becoming extinct but in the sense of being erased from our consciousness Increasingly interactions with animals happen at a remove mediated by nature programs books and cartoons framed by the enclosures of zoos and aquariums distanced by the museum cases that display lifeless bodies In this thought provoking book Arran Stibbe takes us on a journey of discovery revealing the many ways in which language affects our relationships with animals and the natural world Animal product industry manuals school textbooks ecological reports media coverage of environmental issues and animal rights polemics all commonly portray animals as inanimate objects or passive victims In his search for an alternative to these negative forms of discourse Stibbe turns to the traditional culture of Japan Within Zen philosophy haiku poetry and even contemporary children s animated films animals appear as active agents leading their own lives for their own purposes and of value in themselves Those of us of cultures of the land both working with and yes consuming animals will applaud Arran Stibbe s analysis of the loss of soul when right relationship is discarded
