Making Sense In Life And Literature:

Making Sense in Life and Literature Hans Ulrich Gumbrecht, 1992 In this book Gumbrecht describes an intellectual trajectory that can be traced from the interdisciplinary reorientation of the humanities in Germany between 1975 and 1990 to similar issues being discussed in North America today

Making Sense Ralf Hertel, 2021-07-26 Fiction is fascinating All it provides us with is black letters on white pages yet while we read we do not have the impression that we are merely perceiving abstract characters Instead we see the protagonists before our inner eye and hear their voices Descriptions of sumptuous meals make our mouths water we feel physically repelled by depictions of violence or are aroused by the erotic details of sexual conquests We submerge ourselves in the fictional world that no longer stays on the paper but comes to life in our imagination Reading turns into an out of the body experience or rather an in another body experience for we perceive the portrayed world not only through the protagonist's eyes but also through his ears nose tongue and skin In other words we move through the literary text as if through a virtual reality How does literature achieve this trick How does it turn mere letters into vividly experienced worlds This study argues that techniques of sensuous writing contribute decisively to bringing the text to life in the reader's imagination In detailed interpretations of British novels of the 1980s and 1990s by writers such as John Berger John Banville Salman Rushdie Jeanette Winterson or J M Coetzee it uncovers literary strategies for turning the sensuous experience into words and for conveying it to the reader demonstrating how we make sense in and of literature Both readers interested in the contemporary novel and in the sensuousness of the reading experience will profit from this innovative study that not only analyses the interest of contemporary authors in the senses but also pin points literary entry points for the sensuous force of reading

Life After Literature Zoltán Kulcsár-Szabó, Tamás Lénárt, Attila Simon, Roland Végső, 2020-04-24 This book offers innovative investigations of the concept of life in art and in theory It features essays that explore biopoetics and look at how insights from the natural sciences shape research within the humanities Since literature works of art and other cultural products decisively shape our ideas of what it means to be human the contributors to this volume examine the question of what literature literary and cultural criticism and philosophy contribute to the distinctions or non distinctions between human animal and vegetal existence Coverage combines different methodological aspects and addresses a wide field of comparative literary studies The essays consider the question of language as a distinctive feature of human existence in a number of different contexts which range from Aristotle's works through several historical layers of the philosophical discourse on the origins of speech to modern anthropology and 20th century continental philosophy In addition the volume includes concrete case studies to the current post humanism debate and provides literary art historian and philosophical perspectives on animal studies The historical multiplicity of the various cultural representations of biological existence be that human animal vegetal or mixed might serve as a productive foundation for discussing the nature and forms of literature's critical contributions to our understanding of these fundamental categories This volume opens up this subject to students and scholars of literature art philosophy ethics and cultural studies and to anyone with a theoretical interest in the questions of life

Essays in Literary Aesthetics Ranjan K. Ghosh, 2018-10-10 The book deals with philosophical issues concerning the understanding of the literary text and its distinctive nature meaning and relevance to life It also provides an occasion to revisit many of the seminal ideas towards these ends by contextualizing them in the current ongoing philosophical discourse on art in general and literary art in particular Some of the questions addressed in this book are What is a literary text What do we understand by the concept of intention in the context of literary arts Are the feelings experienced in a literary text real What then is the sense of truth in literature which is fictional in character What relevance do moral concerns and perceptions have in appreciation of the literary text These are some of the seminal questions that are dealt with by critically responding to views of contemporary thinkers In short the book makes an attempt to provide a critical overview of contemporary debates and discussions of literary aesthetics mainly from a Western analytical perspective The author argues that understanding a literary text is not a purely cognitive exercise on the contrary we experience aesthetic meaning or truth in terms of valuable insights that play a role in our understanding of life and emotions This book is useful for scholars researchers and students of philosophy and literature interested in aesthetics

Fiction and the Weave of Life John Gibson, 2007-12-06 Literature is a source of understanding and insight into the human condition Yet ever since Aristotle philosophers have struggled to provide a plausible account of how this can be the case For surely the fictionality the sheer invented character of the literary work means that literature concerns itself not with the real world but with other worlds what are commonly called fictional worlds How is it then that fictions can tell us something of consequence about reality In Fiction and the Weave of Life John Gibson offers a novel and intriguing account of the relationship between literature and life and shows that literature's great cultural and cognitive value is inseparable from its fictionality and inventiveness

Music Writing Literature, from Sand Via Debussy to Derrida Peter Dayan, 2006 Why does poetry appeal to music Can music be said to communicate as language does What between music and poetry is it possible to translate These fundamental questions have remained obstinately difficult despite the recent burgeoning of word and music studies Peter Dayan contends that the reasons for this difficulty were worked out with extraordinary rigour and consistency in a French literary tradition echoed by composers such as Berlioz and Debussy which stretches from Sand to Derrida Their writing shows how it is both necessary and futile to look for music in poetry or for poetry in music

To Think Frank Smith, 2014-04-04 One of the central questions facing anyone involved in education is can you actually teach anyone to think To begin to answer this question it is necessary to know what thinking means Frank Smith is one of the most influential writers in education today His work on reading in particular has had a seminal effect on classroom practice throughout the English speaking world At the core of all his work has been this issue of the nature of thought In this book he analyses the language of thinking and then moves on to look at different aspects of the thinking process everyday thought creative and critical thought Finally he looks critically at the various methods currently advocated for teaching children to think arguing that learning to think is in the end less a matter of instruction than of experience and opportunity Julian Barnes

Frederick M. Holmes,2008-11-14 This comprehensive introduction places the work of Julian Barnes into historical and theoretical context Including a timeline of key dates this guide explores his characteristic literary techniques offers extensive readings of all 10 novels and provides an overview of the varied critical reception his work has provoked Full Gospel, Fractured Minds?

Rick M. Nañez,2010-02-23 Do you sometimes feel you have to check your intellect at the church door leaving reason behind to embrace the Christian faith Do you hunger for a full gospel that includes the mind as well as heart and Spirit Full Gospel Fractured Minds challenges charismatic and Pentecostal believers to discover the power of a well maintained mind a mind on fire to match a heart on fire and to create a life that operates within the full counsel of God Na ez shows how human reason helps us understand and interpret God s Word as well as defend the gospel He shows what the Bible teaches about the mind and explores the backgrounds of nineteenth century and modern culture anti intellectualism Pentecostal history and beliefs and popular misconceptions about human intellect in relation to the Christian faith Full Gospel Fractured Minds helps men and women practice a Christian faith that reflects the whole person and the full gospel Rick Na ez calls Pentecostals and charismatics to seek a balance between mind and Spirit This book will stir you to seek all that God has for you From the Foreword by Stanley M Horton PhD The Social Life of Stories Julie

Cruikshank,2000-08-01 In this theoretically sophisticated study of indigenous oral narratives Julie Cruikshank moves beyond the text to explore the social significance of storytelling Circumpolar Native peoples today experience strikingly different and often competing systems of narrative and knowledge These systems include traditional oral stories the authoritative literate voice of the modern state and the narrative forms used by academic disciplines to represent them to outsiders Pressured by other systems of narrative and truth how do Native peoples use their stories and find them still meaningful in the late twentieth century Why does storytelling continue to thrive What can anthropologists learn from the structure and performance of indigenous narratives to become better academic storytellers themselves Cruikshank addresses these questions by deftly blending the stories gathered from her own fieldwork with interdisciplinary theoretical perspectives on dialogue and storytelling including the insights of Walter Benjamin Mikhail Bakhtin and Harold Innis Her analysis reveals the many ways in which the artistry and structure of storytelling mediate between social action and local knowledge in indigenous northern communities Well-Being and Well-Becoming in Schools Thomas Falkenberg,2023-12-18 By its very nature school education is concerned with student well being Written by Canadian education scholars from a Manitoba based research group Well Being and Well Becoming in Schools aims to develop the notion that what we wish for our children is their well being and well becoming as they live their lives This collection brings education scholars together to focus on a timely topic that has been of rapidly increasing interest to the research and education communities student well being and flourishing schools Contributors address a broad range of issues that arise from this position to create a rich and integrated understanding of the topic Chapters focus on foundational issues conceptual issues socio cultural and organizational issues and pedagogical and curricular issues Ultimately Well Being and Well Becoming in Schools weaves together substantial ideas to create an integrative framework that will not only serve as a guide for further research but also for school educational leaders and educators to implement the idea of making school education primarily about student well being Creativity and Writing Teresa Grainger, Kathy Goouch, Andrew Lambirth, 2005-05-06 This accessible yet authoritative book considers and encourages flexible playful and innovative practices in the teaching of writing and shows how certain practices can develop children's creative and linguistic potential and their overall skill

Making Sense of God Timothy Keller, 2016-09-20 We live in an age of skepticism Our society places such faith in empirical reason historical progress and heartfelt emotion that it's easy to wonder Why should anyone believe in Christianity What role can faith and religion play in our modern lives In this thoughtful and inspiring new book pastor and New York Times bestselling author Timothy Keller invites skeptics to consider that Christianity is more relevant now than ever As human beings we cannot live without meaning satisfaction freedom identity justice and hope Christianity provides us with unsurpassed resources to meet these needs Written for both the ardent believer and the skeptic Making Sense of God shines a light on the profound value and importance of Christianity in our lives

Books in the Life of a Child Maurice Saxby, 1997-10-15 Books in the Life of a Child explores the value of books and reading in the stimulation of children's imagination and their fundamental importance in the development of language and true literacy It examines not only the vast range of children's books available but also how to introduce young people to the joys of reading in the home the school and in the community The book has been written as a resource for all adults especially teachers student teachers librarians and parents and those who care about the value of literature for children It is a comprehensive and critical guide with chapters on the history of children's literature and an analysis of its many forms and genres from poetry fairytale myth legend and fantasy through realistic and historical fiction to humour pulp fiction and information books

Life Writing as World Literature Helga Lenart-Cheng, Ioana Luca, 2025-05-01 A global array of contributors explore the interplay between translation and circulation mediums and materialities and aesthetics and politics in how life writing is shaped by and becomes world literature We live in the age of popular self representation in that most people around the globe either produce or consume autobiographical material memoirs selfies blogs etc The current volume investigates this global phenomenon and examines how life writing and world literature converge Why do some personal stories get picked up translated circulated and taught in classrooms while others remain moored in local waters Do autobiographical stories that travel widely have something in common about them Or is it the other way around is it our notion of world literature that imposes uniform expectations on these diverse texts And what can we gain from studying these two fields in conjunction Life Writing as World Literature brings together experts who map regional and local autobiographical traditions from six continents These scholars explore the dynamic interplay between local and global aesthetics and sociopolitical concerns presenting case studies that include prison narratives from communist regimes Japanese diaries multilingual Caribbean memoirs Indian auto biographical comics and stories by Taiwanese domestic workers To understand how and why some personal stories enter global dissemination contributors inquire into translation market mechanisms and circulation patterns while also exploring the affordances of new media and materialities when recording contemporary lives Life Writing as World Literature brings a fresh perspective to both fields world literature and life writing opening up exciting avenues of research Researching City Life Tyler Schafer, Michael Ian Borer, 2023 This book aims to specifically address the uses and roles of qualitative research in cities including carefully selected and edited readings that cover participant observation interviewing narrative analysis visual and sensory methods and methods for representing the city The book also features short original essays from key authors and introductions from the editors

Anthropology and New Testament Theology Jason Maston, Benjamin E. Reynolds, 2018-02-22 This volume considers the New Testament in the light of anthropological study in particular the current trend towards theological anthropology The book begins with three essays that survey the context in which the New Testament was written covering the Old Testament early Jewish writings and the literature of the Greco Roman world Chapters then explore the anthropological ideas found in the texts of the New Testament and in the thought of its writers notably that of Paul The volume concludes with pieces from Brian S Roser and Ephraim Radner who bring the whole exploration together by reflecting on the theological implications of the New Testament's anthropological ideas Taken together the chapters in this volume address the question that humans have been asking since at least the earliest days of recorded history what does it mean to be human The presence of this question in modern theology and its current prevalence in popular culture makes this volume both a timely and relevant interdisciplinary addition to the scholarly conversation around the New Testament Handbook of the Psychology of Aging, 2015-08-19 Handbook of the Psychology of Aging Eighth Edition tackles the biological and environmental influences on behavior as well as the reciprocal interface between changes in the brain and behavior during the course of the adult life span The psychology of aging is important to many features of daily life from workplace and the family to public policy matters It is complex and new questions are continually raised about how behavior changes with age Providing perspectives on the behavioral science of aging for diverse disciplines the handbook explains how the role of behavior is organized and how it changes over time Along with parallel advances in research methodology it explicates in great detail patterns and sub patterns of behavior over the lifespan and how they are affected by biological health and social interactions New topics to the eighth edition include preclinical neuropathology audition and language comprehension in adult aging cognitive interventions and neural processes social interrelations age differences in the connection of mood and cognition cross cultural issues financial decision making and capacity technology gaming social networking and more Tackles the biological and environmental influences on behavior as well as the reciprocal interface between changes in the brain and behavior during the course of the adult life span Covers the key areas in psychological gerontology research in one volume Explains how the role of behavior is organized and how it changes over time Completely revised from the previous edition New chapter on gender and aging process Family Life Now Kelly J. Welch,2025-01-07 Written with a down to earth and student focused approach Family Life Now 4th edition delivers a comprehensive examination of interaction among family members and intimate partners With an emphasis on today s diverse and complex individual family and the evolving impact of societal issues this text engages students through a balanced integrated approach of the human development and family science disciplines Author Kelly Welch uses a first person narrative style of writing to engage readers encourage them draw upon their own background and experiences to understand theories and concepts and to paint a realistic view of families and intimate relationships This text lays the foundation to understanding relationships better applying research and theory and promotes the ways in which those considering a helping profession career such as social worker therapist psychologist teacher early childhood childcare provider or healthcare provider can employ strengths oriented best practices to create and deliver effective quality couple and family life education Meaning in Late-life Jessie Dezutter,Suvi-Maria Katariina Saarelainen,Gørill Haugan,2022-03-28
