Night Thoughts And Henry Vaughan:

Night Thoughts and Henry Vaughan David Young, 1994 This engaging and thought provoking volume consists of two poems The first Henry Vaughan just longer than one hundred lines acts as a gateway to the second Night Thoughts a book length poem of nearly one thousand lines Together they form one of the more ambitious projects undertaken by an American poet in recent years Henry Vaughan reflects the sensibility of the seventeenth century Welsh mystic poet whose visionary night pieces form a kind of inspiration for Night Thoughts which is set entirely in David Young s backyard on an August night in 1991 during the Perseid meteor shower Night Thoughts is filled with natural history scientific issues and a richly meditative engagement with memory emotion and history A self confessed bioregionalist who has made northern Ohio his home for thirty three years Young uses the local as his doorway to the universal Of his first prizewinning collection Sweating Out the Winter 1969 one of the judges William Stafford noted David Young s poems continually loop the immediate into the far and make enriched returns That statement still stands for the practice of this remarkably consistent and distinctive poet

Graveyard Poetry Eric Parisot, 2016-04-22 While immensely popular in the eighteenth century current critical wisdom regards graveyard poetry as a short lived fad with little lasting merit In the first book length study of this important poetic mode Eric Parisot suggests to the contrary that graveyard poetry is closely connected to the mid century aesthetic revision of poetics Graveyard poetry s contribution to this paradigm shift Parisot argues stems from changing religious practices and their increasing reliance on printed material to facilitate private devotion by way of affective and subjective response Coupling this perspective with graveyard poetry s obsessive preoccupation with death and salvation makes visible its importance as an articulation or negotiation between contemporary religious concerns and emerging aesthetics of poetic practice Parisot reads the poetry of Robert Blair Edward Young and Thomas Gray among others as a series of poetic experiments that attempt to accommodate changing religious and reading practices and translate religious concerns into parallel reconsiderations of poetic authority agency death and afterlife Making use of an impressive body of religious treatises sermons and verse that ground his study in a precise historical moment Parisot shows graveyard poetry s strong ties to seventeenth century devotional texts and most importantly its influential role in the development of late eighteenth century sentimentalism and Romanticism

Living without God: A Multicultural Spectrum of Atheism Sanjit Chakraborty, Anway Mukhopadhyay, 2022-11-16

This book deals with the intricate issue of approaching atheism methodologically as well as conceptually from the perspective of cultural pluralism What does atheism mean in different cultural contexts Can this term be applied appropriately to different religious discourses which conceptualize God gods Goddess goddesses and also godlessness in hugely divergent ways Is my God the same as yours If not then how can your atheism be the same as mine In other words this volume raises the question Is it not high time that we proposed a comparative study of atheism s alongside that of religions rather than believing that atheism is centered in the Western experience Apart from answering these questions the book highlights the much needed focus on the philosophical negotiations between atheism theism and agnosticism The fine chapters collected here present pluralist negotiations with the notion of atheism and its ethical theological literary and scientific corollaries Previously published in Sophia Volume 60 issue 3 September 2021 Chapters Religious Conversion and Loss of Faith Cases of Personal Paradigm Shift and On Being an Infidel are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via link springer.com Directory of Web Sites Graham Bennett,1999 Overloaded with the mass of information on the Internet Frustrated by how difficult it is to find what you really want Now you don t need to spend hours browsing around the Internet or grappling with the huge number of hits from an Internet search engine the Directory of Web Sites will take you straight to the best educational sites on the Internet From archaeology to zoology from dance to technology the Directory provides information more than 5 500 carefully selected Web sites that represent the best of what the Internet has to offer The sites are grouped by subject each one features a full description and the text is complemented throughout by screenshots and fact boxes As well sites have been selected purely on educational merit all sites with overtly commercial content and influence from Internet providers have been excluded
