

CLASSIC LIBERALISM

This ideology started in 1776 through Adam Smith. He advocated laissez-faire system, under which the government lets the economy alone. The motto of liberalism is: "That government is best that governs less," as stated by Thomas Jefferson.

CLASSIC CONSERVATISM

The best practices and institutions in history should be conserved, and change must be gradual. Our society needs standards of morality in order to contain the irrational passions of men.

MARXIST SOCIALISM

The advocate of this was Karl Marx. There are two classes: bourgeoisie or the capitalists, who owns the means of production and the proletariat are the majority who work for the elite class.

MODERN LIBERALISM

The government should step into the marketplace to guarantee the freedom to live an adequate level.

MODERN CONSERVATISM

This is the ideology that continues its allegiance to Adam Smith's original doctrine of minimal government.

SOCIAL DEMOCRACY

The social democrats use "welfare" to improve the living conditions of the people. However, welfare states have to impose high taxes in order to pay for welfare measures.

COMMUNISM

This is also known as Marxism-Leninism. It is focused on the proletariat rising up against the bourgeoisie.

NEOCONSERVATISM

A protest against the alleged excesses of the welfare state, which is perceived to encourage a class of poor people dependent on welfare, with little incentive to work.

FEMINISM

The ideology that the law should guarantee equality of treatment regardless of gender.

ENVIRONMENTALISM

The ideology that the people should live in balance with nature, rather than destroy it. The environmentalists call themselves "Green".

NATIONALISM

It has been described as exaggerated belief in the greatness and unity of one's country. The engine of nationalism is the passionate feeling that it is wrong to be ruled by others.

RELIGIOUS FUNDAMENTALISM

Political and social lives should be based on the original religious principles, which are supported by a belief in the literal truth of sacred texts.

COMMUNITARIANISM

It advocates the need to revive communities, as institutions between the state and the individual.

Soborski,2013-06-11 This book challenges the popular view that established ideologies no longer make sense in today s globalizing world Considered from a broad historical perspective major ideological traditions have not become destabilized and incoherent by globalization but remain meaningful political beliefs that shape the globalization debate Neoliberalism 2.0: Regulating and Financing Globalizing Markets L. Nijs,2016-01-26 In today s increasingly globalized environment many economic fundamentals need to be reconsidered in order to regain stability in the global marketplace One such consideration is the failing dynamics of the international tax infrastructure Neoliberalism 2 0 brings a 21st century assessment of the Pigovian taxes considering a completely new calibration of the international tax systems inspired by the historically developed Pigovian tax model The book considers the impact neoliberalism had and will have on regulatory infrastructure democracy in an era of globalization and reduced legitimization of the national state The Pigovian model brings home the often forgotten relationship between taxation as a part of the regulatory sphere macro economics and the political philosophical context in which law and economics emerge The model also takes into account the phenomena of globalization and financialization and is tested using the financial sector as an example This book addresses the many challenges a Pigovian shift would imply for the sovereign and its national economies Neoliberalism 2.0 demonstrates the ability to design a paradigm changing alternative to the current tax infrastructure while taking into account a low economic growth environment of the future the implications of globalization and the changing relationship between citizens and their state Indian Mutual Funds Handbook (5th Edition) Sundar Sankaran,2018-05-25 The Palgrave Handbook of Anarchism Carl Levy,Matthew S.
