Teaching Tips for Horseback Riding Instructors Jo Struby, 2013-11-01 Jo holds a M A in Education with an emphasis in Equestrian Studies 1986 and a B S in Equestrian Studies with a minor in Education 1986 graduating magna cum laude. Both of her academic degrees are from Salem International University West Virginia. She also holds a Riding Master Diploma 1975 from Meredith Manor School of Horsemanship where she was named to the Who's Who List for Outstanding Students in American Vocational and Technical Schools 1975. As an administrator Jo was formerly Dean of Meredith Manor School of Horsemanship 1980-1985. She has a strong professional background in teacher education program administration and curriculum development. While teaching at this internationally known school for 10 years she focused on the development of the jumping and teaching departments. As former Vice President for the United States Combined Training Association Jo served on the executive committee from 1987-1989 and the board of governors from 1984-1989. During her tenure she developed the AHSA-USCTA Combined Training Officials seminars as well as carried out the educational seminars for the general membership including beginning the USCTA Event Colleges. In 1988 she received the USCTA's Governor's Cup Award for outstanding contributions to the sport of Eventing. As an educator Jo has provided equestrian education to riders and instructors nationally since 1975. From 1989 through 2002 she provided an on going education program for horseback riding instructors focusing on improving their teaching effectiveness. She has also developed a working student program for Shenandoah Farm of Staunton Virginia on training and breeding and advised Wetherbee Farm of Boxboro Massachusetts on developing their Fitness by Riding Program. As a rider competitor and athlete Jo has trained and competed through the Advanced Level in Eventing and the Prix St Georges Level in Dressage. She earned her USDF Bronze and Silver Medal Rider Awards during the late 1970's. She has also been long listed during the 1980's for The Eventing Olympic Team.

A Geography of Horse-Riding Cheryl Nosworthy, 2014-08-11 This book presents an in depth qualitative exploration of the practice of horse riding by disabled and non disabled riders and their horses. Situated as part of an affective turn within human geography creative and original use is made of poststructuralist theory to bring together animal studies and disability studies in order to decentre the human as we think about the social. Eighteen months of multi sited performance ethnography on the hoof were conducted with riders recruited from local riding schools an internet forum and three Riding for the Disabled Association RDA groups. The study employed various methods including diary keeping participant observation and video recording of riding activities in order to capture moments of horse human relating. Through these methods the embodied expressions of horses are taken seriously as demonstrative of their individual thoughts and intentions.
