Bolender's Guide to Mastering Mountain and Extreme Trail Riding Mark Bolender, 2012-04-20 Good horsemanship is not about domination but leadership and having the horse volunteer for a partnership with the handler. That summarizes the focus of trainer and author Mark Bolender. In Bolender's Guide to Mastering Mountain and Extreme Trail Riding he spells out his philosophy and training regimen that works to build mutual trust between a horse and rider. Bolender's training method developed to incorporate the horse's natural instincts is appropriate for riders of any skill level from those who want to ride for pleasure to those who seek more advanced techniques for Mountain and Extreme Trail competition. Bolender, the world's most winning competitor in Mountain and Extreme Trail, combines old style philosophies with new insight into the horse's world. In this guide he provides an array of information: selecting an ideal trail horse, acquiring the proper equipment, earning and building trust, and handling obstacles such as poles and logs, rocks, trenches, water gates, bridges, campsites, and other animals and people. Instructive and informative, the guide breaks down Bolender's techniques into easy-to-digest pieces. It provides a fascinating journey into the horse's mind and how its instincts can be used to develop good horsemanship.

Horses Whispering: Mary-Charlotte B. Shealy R.N. Ph.D., 2013-01-31 Horses Whispering emphasizes the unique bond between horses and people, suggesting that every hair on the horse is a biofeedback signal that the horse is responding to connectedness with the rider. For adults interested in beginning horseback riding or returning to riding after a period of time, often due to a traumatic experience with a horse, the author provides detailed examples of the wide range of experiences which are useful to all equestrian activities. Understanding the power of the horse-rider partnership is a metaphor for the gestalt of teaching and learning.

Abigail B. Wiebenson, Director Emerita, Lowell School, Washington, DC. Indeed, learning to receive the unspoken messages from people and horses is crucial for all successful relationships. Just as human body language is often more important than speech, intuitive awareness of this more subtle information is essential for all aspects of life. This is a call for your success centered life whatever your interests. Once you learn the whispered messages between individuals, you will overcome fears about your interactions with other people and animals.
