Ostler,2006-03-01 In volume 2 of the series Exploring Mormon Thought The Problems of Theism and the Love of God Blake Ostler explores issues related to soteriology or the theory of salvation He argues that the commitment that God loves us and respects our dignity as persons entails that God must leave us free to choose whether to have a saving relationship with him He explores the logic of love and argues that the LDS doctrine of a war in heaven embodies the commitment that God leaves us free to choose whether to enter into relationship with God He explores the nature of inter personal prayer and the contributions of LDS beliefs to a robust prayer dialogue He offers a view consistent with LDS commitments that makes sense out of asking God to assist others to alter the natural environment and to grow in relationship with God He then turns to the concept of grace and argues that the traditional views lead to insurmountable problems He argues that though God does not owe any obligation to us to give us grace God does so out of love However because divinity arises from loving relationships he argues that God could not fail to give sufficient grace to all persons and remain a loving God Inside Out Larry Crabb,2014-02-27 If you want a more vital union with God a richer relationship with others and a deeper sense of personal wholeness learn how to look inside yourself and discover how God works real liberating change when you live from the inside out Packed with new and compelling insights this 25th anniversary edition of Inside Out is an essential tool for personal discipleship counseling and encouragement Includes a 12 week study guide
