Marxism And The Moral Point Of View Kai Nielsen, 2021-11-28 Marxism and the Moral Point of View attempts to say what consistent Marxists working within the parameters of the canonical conceptions of Marxism should say about morality. Character and Personality in the Novels of William Faulkner Ineke Bockting, 1995 Bockting has produced a work that focuses on the people that Faulkner created in his four major psychological novels: The Sound and the Fury 1929, As I Lay Dying 1920, Light in August 1932 and Absalom Absalom 1936. The author writes not about these people either as literary characters or as human beings but instead has allowed them to come alive in their own time through their own texts. Psychostylistics is the innovative approach to the literary character that Bockting employs, bringing together new developments in narrative psychology and psychiatry with literary stylistics and mind style to provide detailed textual and contextual evidence in support of its observations on personality. Contents: The Literary Character Between Life and Linguistic Style; Mind Style in The Sound and the Fury; Multiple Voices in As I Lay Dying; Light in August and the Issues of Unreliability; Absalom Absalom: A Novel of Attribution; Character, Personality and Psychostylistics.
