Jack Donnelly, 2003 4 Choice of Means Religion Seeking Justice and Peace (Penerbit USM) Chandra Muzaffar, 2010 Religion Seeking Justice and Peace not only highlights the values that the different religions share in their pursuit of justice and peace but also provides concrete examples of how individuals and institutions from different religious backgrounds have worked for justice and peace throughout history The book also exposes the danger of religious extremism religious exclusivism and other such negative traits to the struggle for justice and peace It takes cognisance of the impact of the larger environment upon religious ideals and at the same time makes a plea for the application of universal values and principles embodied in the various religions to politics Economics culture and society This is particularly important some of the contributors argue at a time like this when humanity is confronted with multiple global crises Islam in Malaysia

Khairudin Aljunied,2019-08-30 This book surveys the growth and development of Islam in Malaysia from the eleventh to the twenty first century investigating how Islam has shaped the social lives languages cultures and politics of both Muslims and non Muslims in one of the most populous Muslim regions in the world Khairudin Aljunied shows how Muslims in Malaysia built upon the legacy of their pre Islamic past while benefiting from Islamic ideas values and networks to found flourishing states and societies that have played an influential role in a globalizing world He examines the movement of ideas peoples goods technologies arts and cultures across into and out of Malaysia over the centuries Interactions between Muslims and the local Malay population began as early as the eighth century sustained by trade and the agency of Sufi as well as Arab Indian Persian and Chinese scholars and missionaries Aljunied looks at how Malay states and societies survived under colonial regimes that heightened racial and religious divisions and how Muslims responded through violence as well as reformist movements Although there have been tensions and skirmishes between Muslims and non Muslims in Malaysia they have learned in the main to co exist harmoniously creating a society comprising of a variety of distinct populations This is the first book to provide a seamless account of the millennium old venture of Islam in Malaysia Reformist Voices of Islam

Shireen Hunter,Shireen T Hunter,2014-12-18 In recent years Islamic fundamentalist revolutionary and jihadist movements have overshadowed more moderate and reformist voices and trends within Islam This compelling volume introduces the current generation of reformist thinkers and activists the intellectual traditions they carry on and the reasons for the failure of reformist movements to sustain broad support in the Islamic world today Richly detailed regionally focused chapters cover Iran the Arab East the Maghreb South Asia Indonesia Malaysia Turkey Europe and North America The editor s introductory chapter traces the roots of reformist thinking both in Islamic tradition and as a response to the challenge of modernity for Muslims struggling to reconcile the requirements of modernization with their cultural and religious values The concluding chapter identifies commonalities comparisons and trends in the modernizing movements Universal Human Rights in a World of Difference Brooke A. Ackerly,2008-06-26 From the diverse work and often competing insights of women s human rights activists Brooke Ackerly has written a feminist and a universal theory of human rights that bridges the relativists concerns about universalizing from particulars and the activists commitment to justice Unlike universal theories that rely on shared commitments to divine authority or to an enlightened way of reasoning Ackerly s theory relies on rigorous methodological attention to difference and disagreement She sets out human rights as at once a research ethic a tool for criticism of injustice and a call to recognize our obligations to promote justice through our actions This book will be of great interest to political theorists feminist and gender studies scholars and researchers of social movements

Contemporary Islamic Discourse in the Malay-Indonesian World Azhar Ibrahim, 2022-11-24 While many books have probed the role of Islam in political and social change in Southeast Asia over the past three decades few have focused on the power of the religious discourse itself in shaping this transformation Contemporary Islamic Discourse in the Malay Indonesian World captures the interplay between religion and social thought in comparative case studies from Malaysia Indonesia and Singapore Drawing on a critical sociology of knowledge and a profound understanding of historical contexts the central focus is on Muslim intellectuals who have grappled with the impact of modernity in these societies between those seeking to reform Islam's role and those who take a hardline defensive stance The discussion deals successively with the role of religious traditionalism the upsurge of dakwah revivalism and the public sphere attitudes towards democracy and pluralism and finally the ideas advanced by liberal Islam and its opponents Above all Azhar Ibrahim offers the reader a creative way of understanding the modern Islamic discourse and its relationship to the remaking of society at large Azhar Ibrahim's book cuts through the noise of much discourse on Islam and puts perspective to a vast amount of materials effectively constructing their actual social and historical meaning It should be read by all those seeking an in depth understanding of contemporary Southeast Asia even beyond the particular issues of Islam and Muslims Shaharuddin Maaruf Academy of Malay Studies University of Malaya This book is a must read for all those interested in a critical evaluation of the force and implications of religious traditionalism conservatism and revivalism on the development of plural and democratic Muslim societies in Southeast Asia and the challenges they pose to critical voices struggling for the relevance of ethical and humanist traditions of Islam Noor Aisha binte Abdul Rahman Department of Malay Studies National University of Singapore

Being in the World Fred Dallmayr, 2013-05-16 Tradition community and pride are fundamental aspects of the history of Appalachia and the language of the region is a living testament to its rich heritage Despite the persistence of unflattering stereotypes and cultural discrimination associated with their style of speech Appalachians have organized to preserve regional dialects complex forms of English peppered with words phrases and pronunciations unique to the area and its people Talking Appalachian examines these distinctive speech varieties and emphasizes their role in expressing local history and promoting a shared identity Beginning with a historical and geographical overview of the region that analyzes the origins of its dialects this volume features detailed research and local case studies investigating their use The contributors explore a variety of subjects including the success of African American Appalachian English and southern Appalachian English speakers in professional and corporate positions In addition editors Amy D Clark and Nancy M Hayward provide excerpts from essays poetry short fiction and novels to illustrate usage With contributions from well known authors such as George Ella Lyon and Silas House this balanced collection is the most comprehensive accessible study of Appalachian language available today

menelesuri tradisi yang tercerah yang tersudut dalam sejarah serta harus dapat dikembalikan peranannya tanpa pula kita terjebak meromantiskannya yang mengidamkan pulang ke tradisi semata mata sebagai jalan keluar dari segala kemelut dan permasalahan yang kita hadapi Pembaharuan akan bisa berakar sekiranya tampil di kalangan agamawan dan aktivis santri yang bukan sahaja teryakin dari gagasan reformis tetapi juga datang dari sekelompok tradisionalis yang tercerah Yang terakhir ini dapat membedakan peranan tradisi yang dinamis sifatnya sebagai gerak nilai dan budaya yang mampu menawarkan nilai nilai ulung dan universal sepanjang perjalanan sejarah tanpa terikat dengan pola pemikiran sesuatu zaman Yang paling jelas pembaharuan tradisi agama akan terbantut selagi agama tidak bergerak dalam ranah yang bebas yakni dibelenggu dengan hegemoni konservatisme yang pantang mendengar ungkapan baru yang tidak selari dengan ideologi mereka ataupun wacana itu sendiri senang dikotak katikkan oleh pihak berwewenang yang lebih cenderung untuk memaksakan fahaman dominan ke atas semua atas nama mengekalkan kemurniaan dan kepersatuan agama dan jemaahnya

Civilizational Dialogue and World Order M. Michael, 2009-05-25 The book comes at a very critical moment in the debate on civilization and responds to the lack of scholarly attention by international relations and political theorists as to how the discourse of dialogue of cultures religions and civilizations can contribute to the future of world order
